Social Justice and Transformative Learning Saundra M. Tomlinson-Clarke, Darren L. Clarke, 2016-03-10 The similarities between the United States and South Africa with respect to race power oppression and economic inequities are striking and a better understanding of these parallels can provide educational gains for students and educators in both countries Through shared experiences and perspectives this volume presents scholarly work from U S and South African scholars that advance educational practice in support of social justice and transformative learning It provides a comprehensive framework for developing transformational learning experiences that facilitates leadership for social justice and a deeper understanding of the factors influencing personal national and global identity

Remapping Africa in the Global Space Edward Shizha, 2014-11-26 What are the benefits and risks for Africa s participation in the globalisation nexus Remapping Africa in the Global Space is a visionary and interdisciplinary volume that restores Africa s image using a multidisciplinary lens It incorporates disciplines such as sociology education global studies economics development studies political science and philosophy to explore and theorise Africa s reality in the global space and to deconstruct the misperceptions and narratives that often infantilise Africa s internal and international relations The contributions to this volume are a hybrid of both outsider and insider perspectives that create a balanced critical discourse that can provide standard paradigms that can adequately explain predict or prevent Africa s current misperceptions and myths about the African crisis and failure status The authors provide a holistic and perhaps anticolonial and anti hegemonic perspective that can benefit a wide spectrum of academics scholars students development agents policy makers in both governmental and non governmental organisations and engage some alternative analyses and possibilities for socio politico and economic advancement in Africa The book provides up to date scholarly research on continental trends on various subjects and concerns of paramount importance to globalisation and development in Africa The book is brilliant Remapping Africa in the Global Space Propositions for Change explores Africa from the perspective of academics specialised in subject matters pertaining to the continent In this age of globalisation I find this book invaluable It is a good read as it dissects analyses and presents issues affecting the continent in an articulate and cogent way I highly recommend its use in academic institutions

Magnus Mfoafo M Carthy Assistant Professor Lyle S Hallman Faculty of Social Work Fellow of Tshepo Institute for the Study of Contemporary Africa Wilfrid Laurier University Kitchener Canada More than anything else Remapping Africa in the Global Space Propositions for Change speaks to the complex multifaceted and interfused character of the development challenges and prospects of Africa Indeed few books have examined contemporary Africa as comprehensively and insightfully as this
