Palliative Nursing Palliative Nursing:

Palliative Nursing Shaun Kinghorn, Sandra Gaines, 2007-11-14 This title is directed primarily towards health care professionals outside of the United States Content has been thoroughly revised and updated in line with changes in practice and policy both locally and internationally particularly the UK NICE guidance on Supportive and palliative care for people with cancer and the Care of the Dying Pathway It reflects the rapid development of palliative nursing as an emerging specialty It helps in the process of defining palliative nursing and how it interfaces with other disciplines within the specialty The text is divided into three sections and comprehensively yet sensitively covers all aspects of palliative nursing Key themes covered include pain control symptom control loss and grief and handling loss A strong emphasis is placed on the integration of theory and practice and evidence based care Reconciliation of the theory and practice is achieved by the use of case studies It addresses malignant and non malignant palliative care Research and extensive literature support each chapter Content has been thoroughly revised and updated in line with changes in practice and policy both locally and internationally particularly the UK NICE guidance on Supportive and palliative care for people with cancer and the Care of the Dying Pathway Three new chapters on Sexuality Care of the Dying Pathway Changing roles of the nurse in palliative care New appendix on North American drug names equivalents for the international market

Palliative Care Nursing Sheila Payne, 2008-08-01 It has been a true pleasure to have had the opportunity to peruse the second edition of Palliative Care Nursing This book authored predominately by UK based experts succeeds in presenting sophisticated thoughts in readily accessible language Each chapter begins with a summary of key points with both classic and new relevant literature well integrated into the text I have also been particularly impressed with the editors final chapter in which they synthesize a number of crucial issues for the future development of palliative care this second edition makes a significant contribution to both the palliative care literature as well as to nursing literature Carol Tishelman Karolinska Institutet Stockholm Sweden I find Palliative Care Nursing a very attractive book for nurses but also for other disciplines to learn about nursing and to learn about palliative care The book is voluminous informative and educationally well constructed Frameworks and models in this book will give nurses the opportunity to make up their own process to offer support and be a carer for the incurably ill person and his her family as a skilled companion This book gives the possibility for nurses to spread one clear voice about palliative care nursing Congratulations to all the authors Martine De Vlieger Palliatieve Hulpverlening Antwerpen v z w University of Antwerp Belgium This book should be compulsory reading for nurses and other health care workers who are involved in the care of people in the final stages of life It provides a comprehensive account of the major issues clinical professional sociological and political that confront contemporary palliative care while also offering strategies to move forward The real world of palliative care is described and critiqued and the rhetoric is dispensed with This book is a vital resource for nursing practice learning and teaching Associate Professor Peter Hudson RN PhD Director of the Centre for Palliative Care Research and Education St Vincent's Hospital and The University of Melbourne Australia This is an excellent book for anyone completing either an academic qualification or who wants to understand the who what and where of palliative care both in the UK and abroad Its detail is balanced with case studies and practical illustrations that bring the academic nature of its writing to life For reference purposes for anyone completing academic work it has to be an absolute must Nursing Times The second edition of this innovative textbook has been extensively revised and updated to reflect new global developments in palliative care This textbook reviews current research and examines the evidence base for palliative care policy and practice Over a third of the chapters are newly commissioned from leading international contributors Building on the widely acclaimed original edition the textbook focuses on palliative care for adults in a variety of care environments The first three sections use a novel framework the trajectory of life limiting illness to cover key issues including What happens to people as they become ill How individuals cope as they near death and are dying How families and friends deal with bereavement and loss The final section addresses contemporary issues in nursing and inter professional working The book is written with helpful overviews and in an informative and reader friendly style There are numerous examples of clinical situations and research studies which are examined in depth to illustrate debates in palliative care The textbook spans the range of end of life contexts which are of relevance to practitioners educationalists and researchers Palliative Care Nursing is essential reading for post qualification nursing students and all nurses and health and social care professionals who provide care to people with advanced illness and those who are near the end of life This broad ranging critical text will be invaluable to students and practitioners working with people and their families near the end of life

Palliative Care Nursing: Principles and Evidence for Practice Catherine Walshe, Nancy Preston, Bridget Johnston, 2018-05-18 What can nurses do to support those receiving palliative care How do you ensure clear communication and maintain patients and families preferences Palliative Care Nursing is essential reading for nursing students professional nurses and other health and social care professionals providing supportive and palliative care to those with advanced illness or who are towards the end of life This third edition of the acclaimed textbook has been extensively revised and examines important research studies key debates around care and strategies to advance palliative care nursing In four sections the book covers key elements of nursing practice towards the end of life Defining the palliative care patient Providing palliative nursing care Caring around the time of death Challenging issues in palliative care nursing Leading authors address contemporary issues and explore how to provide high quality person centred palliative care encouraging application to practice through exercises and case studies Chapters completely reworked or new for this edition include those on communication living with uncertainty bereavement care the costs of caring nurses decision making and capacity and palliative care worldwide The clarity of evidence presented and coverage of a diverse range of topics make this the foundational textbook for all studying palliative care at pre registration level postgraduate level or as part of CPD study With a foreword by last edition editor Professor Sheila Payne

Lancaster University UK I welcome this third edition of Palliative Care Nursing and congratulations to the new team who have provided us with a dynamic and innovative development of a core text for palliative nursing practice As the largest workforce in palliative care and given the changing face of clinical practice for nurses including increased educational opportunity and expanding roles and responsibilities this book is timely in its focus on critical issues which frame and scope the reality of palliative care and the nursing contribution to that discipline The learning exercises in particular offer tools for educators and clinicians to reflect on practice and understand new ways of knowing in palliative care It will be an excellent resource for nursing both in the UK and Ireland and to the wider international audience having drawn on the breadth of global nursing expertise to bring this book together Philip Larkin Professor of Clinical Nursing Palliative Care University College Dublin and Our Lady s Hospice and Care Services Dublin Ireland President European Association for Palliative Care This is a book of substance that captures the current status of palliative nursing including the values and research evidence that underpin it The changing nature of palliative nursing as an evidence based specialism is balanced with practical skills and insights from experts and also considers the needs of those working with or concerned about the dying person s well being It covers a range of challenging issues as well as drawing on the wisdom of those who actually undertake this work on a daily basis I hope that students and practitioners from all disciplines will find this a useful resource to understand the art and craft of good palliative nursing Professor Daniel Kelly Fellow of the Royal College of Nursing and Royal College of Nursing Chair of Nursing Research Cardiff University UK

Palliative Care Nursing Marianne Matzo, Deborah Witt Sherman, 2006 Annotation Offering a blend of holistic and humanistic caring coupled with aggressive management of pain and symptoms associated with advanced disease this resource is organized around 15 competencies in palliative care developed by the American Association of Colleges of Nursing with each chapter outlining specific skills needed to achieve each competency

Fundamental Aspects of Palliative Care Nursing 2nd Edition Robert Becker, 2016-06-13 This new and expanded edition is aimed directly at the learning needs of student nurses and is unique in that context Whilst there are many high quality books available for academic study in palliative care this is currently the only one that balances a strong educational focus for developing nursing practice with an understanding of the particular needs of student nurses The text maintains a sensitive and supportive approach to the key themes of palliative care nursing but contains important new material of a wide range of initiatives that are impacting on end of life care across the UK It will provide the reader with a concise easy to read and learning oriented text that will give advice and direction to the many challenges faced in this most important area of patient care Each chapter examines a key component of care and new features include Learning outcomes at the start of each chapter to guide the reader Clinical anecdotes to illustrate the reality and complexity of practice Extensive use of recognisable symbols to guide the reader and improve the usability of the text Competency assessment to help gauge knowledge and progress Reflective points to aid professional development Reflective activities to enable the student to reinforce learning from practice Links to appropriate clauses of the current 2008 NMC Code of Professional Conduct Quality internet resources relevant to chapter content Self assessment multiple choice tests at the end of each chapter to consolidate learning An extensive palliative care quiz covering the main topic areas of the book to test knowledge This can be used as evidence with professional portfolios

Palliative Nursing Elaine Stevens, Susan Jackson, Stuart Milligan, 2009-11-16 Palliative Nursing is an evidence based practical guide for nurses working in areas of practice where general palliative care is provided This may be in hospitals nursing homes dementia units the community and any other clinical areas which are not classified as specialist palliative care This book first explores the history and ethos of palliative care and then looks at palliative nursing across various care settings It then looks at palliative nursing care for people with specific illnesses including heart failure dementia chronic obstructive pulmonary disease cancer and neurological conditions Palliative care for children and young people is discussed and then the book finally looks at education and research in palliative nursing Palliative Nursing will be essential reading for all nurses working with palliative care patients in a non-specialist role i.e. in hospitals primary care and nursing homes as well as nursing students

SPECIAL FEATURES Explores the palliative nursing issues related to specific diseases groups Written in the context of the new national tools i.e. the end of life initiative preferred place of care Liverpool care pathway and Gold standards framework Each chapter includes practice points and cases to allow the practitioner to undertake guided reflection to improve practice Written by nurses for nurses Provides guidance for nurses working in all four countries of the UK
