Brown, 2021-10-05 Just as there was no man on earth like Job there is no book on earth like the book of Job In this new commentary biblical scholar Michael Brown brings Job to life for the twenty first century reader exploring the raw spirituality of Job his extraordinary faith his friends theological errors the mysteries of God s speeches and the unique answers to the problem of suffering offered in the book of Job Undergirded by solid Hebrew scholarship but written with clarity for all serious students of Scripture the commentary provides an important introduction to the study of Job a new translation a series of theological reflections and additional exegetical essays providing in depth discussion of key passages Additional topics covered in the theological reflections include the following Challenging God as an Act of Faith How Would Job Comfort a Sufferer Who Was the Satan Job and Jesus Job and the New Atheists The Fallen Angel Mandla Moyo, 2024-03-01 The Fallen Angel is an exciting science fiction thriller that masterfully interweaves pre creation mysteries and biblically based facts with suspenseful action Fans of Ted Dekker Dan Brown Frank E Peretti and Terri Blackstock will not be able to put this book down It s the first of a new series of books I Studied Inscriptions from Before the Flood Richard S. Hess, David Toshio Tsumura, 1994 The Dawn of Agriculture and the Earliest States in Genesis 1-11 Natan Levy, 2023-11-29 This book invites a close textual encounter with the first 11 chapters of Genesis as an intimate drama of marginalised peoples wrestling with the rise of the world s first grain states in the Mesopotamian alluvium The initial 11 chapters of Genesis are often considered discordant and fragmentary despite being a story of beginnings within the context of the Bible Readers discover how these formative chapters cohere as a cross generational account of peoples grappling with the hegemonic spread of domesticated grain production and the concomitant rise of the pristine states of Mesopotamia The book reveals how key episodes from the Genesis narrative reflect major societal revolutions of the Neolithic period in Mesopotamia through a three fold hermeneutical method literary analysis of the Bible and contemporary cuneiform texts modern scholarship from archaeological anthropological ecological and historical sources and relevant exegesis from the Second Temple and rabbinical era These three strands entwine to recount a generally sequential story of the earliest archaic states as narrated by non elites at the margins of these emerging state spaces The Dawn of Agriculture and the Earliest States in Genesis 1 11 provides a fascinating reading of the first 11 chapters of Genesis appealing to students and scholars of the Hebrew Bible and the Near East as well as those working on ecological injustice from a religious vantage point Genesis Abraham Kuruvilla, 2014-02-17 Genesis A Theological Commentary for Preachers engages hermeneutics for preaching employing theological exegesis that enables the preacher to utilize all the narrative units of the book to craft effective sermons This commentary unpacks the crucial link between Scripture and application the theology of each preaching text i e what the author is doing with what he is saying Genesis is thus divided into thirty five narrative units and the theological focus of each is delineated The overall theological trajectory theme of the book divine blessing creating for blessing Gen 1 11 moving towards blessing Gen 12 24 experiencing the blessing Gen 25 36 and being a blessing Gen 37 50 is thus progressively developed The specificity of these theological ideas for their respective texts makes possible a sequential homiletical movement through each pericope of the book enabling the expositor to discover valid application for sermons While the primary goal of the commentary is to take the preacher from text to theology it also provides two sermon outlines for each of the thirty five units of Genesis The unique approach of this work results in a theology for preaching commentary that promises to be useful for anyone teaching through Genesis with an emphasis on application
