Seeding The Cosmos New And Selected Haiku:

Seeding the Cosmos John Brandi, 2010 Poetry A student looking at modern haiku for the first time often asks Why does haiku look like it does today What happened to the rules A simple answer to quote Zen teacher Joko Beck is A good practice is always undermining itself Continent to continent culture to culture language to language haiku has made itself new During this transformation practitioners parted ways with rules that worked best for Japanese speakers New languages geographies climates and cultural environments triggered new approaches The essential core ideas of Basho s time are with us though Keep it brief let it jump follow the natural world through its seasons but do not forget the seasons of the heart from the Afterword Trying Conclusions: New and Selected Poems, 1961 - 1991 Howard Nemerov, 2023-01-18 Shot through with his trademark humour Trying Conclusions is the fourteenth collection of poems from the lauded writer Containing twenty three poems the topics vary wildly from short verses on waiting rooms and fast cars to longer musings on his family war and the US Congress Nemerov s sense of the satirical is best seen in shorter offerings where he takes a literary look at life from the other end of the telescope A superb introduction to the works of one of the 20th Century s most subversive scribes Howard Nemerov 1920 1991 was an American novelist and poet who won the Pulitzer Prize in 1978 His novels are characterised by the use of self deprecating wit and an ongoing sense of irony While his books tended to satirise 20th Century American life his poems often focussed on the beauty and innocence of nature In addition Nemerov also worked as a scriptwriter most notably on the film Tall Story starring Anthony Perkins and Jane Fonda Seedtime Scott Chaskey, 2014-01-21 Scott Chaskey working farmer poet and spiritual father of the community farming movement considers the web of biodiversity and resilience at the heart of our cultural inheritance by masterfully weaving history politics botany literature mythology and memoir into a beautiful and instructive book It s hard to think of a subject more fundamental to the sustenance of the human race than seeds Having coevolved with the Earth s plants insects and animals seeds are entwined with the core myths of ancient cultures and the development of human consciousness Their story remains vitally important today as the corporations that manufacture GMOs threaten our food security and the future of seed cultivated agriculture The stakes for those concerned with preserving biodiversity and ecological integrity are high Balancing a wide view of politics and history Chaskey alights from life on the farm he has cultivated for 25 years to conjure Gregor Mendel s breeding experiments that yielded our modern understanding of genetics he also introduces us to several bioneers such as the geobotanist Nikolay Vavilov and agriculturalist Cary Fowler who are preserving global biodiversity through seeds Integrating scholarship with accessible storytelling Seedtime is a celebration as well as a call to action urging us to renew our role as citizens of nature in ecologist Aldo Leopold s phrase not as conquerors of it Songs Sacred and Profane - New and Selected Poems: Greenside up and Let It All Hang Out Laurence W. Thomas, 2001-01-16 Songs Sacred and Profane is a selection from Thomas four other books and eight chapbooks plus many poems that have not appeared in book form This volume contains in fact two quite different books published as one Greenside Up written almost entirely looking into his garden is made up of bucolic works which observe nature and a quiet life They are well mannered introspective and show the poet's sensitivity to language and his world Let It All Hang Out lets loose with poems that show Thomas' acerbic wit at times his wry approach to human foibles and his personal take on religion coupled with various aspects of love mutability and mortality

Selected Poems of Jorge Carrera Andrade Jorge Carrera Andrade, 1972-01-01 While Latin American poets such as Pablo Neruda Jorge Luis Borges and Octavio Paz have been receiving most of the attention of critics the Ecuadorian poet Jorge Carrera Andrade had quietly continued writing his transparent poetry Nevertheless Carrera Andrade's poems are undoubtedly some of the best ever written in the Spanish language and he has often been mentioned as a likely candidate for the Nobel Prize In his poetic exploration of what he calls the secret country of human existence Carrera Andrade marvels at the beauty of the world And this wonder is conveyed by means of dazzling descriptive metaphors Perhaps it could be said that the Ecuadorian poet always interprets the world visually but his visual images constitute merely a metaphorical technique around which he constructs his poems In his verbal structures he expresses the transitory nature of life as well as the loneliness of man in the universe He describes life in his native Ecuador contemplates with compassion the plight of the Indians of his country and denounces social injustices More recently Carrera Andrade concerned about the destiny of mankind manifests his indomitable faith in humanity in the book Hombre planetario 1959 imagining a social utopia Carrera Andrade has stated that his poetry is the result of the intimate union of the senses and the intellect And yet his poems remain transparent He rejects obscurity and complexity and chooses simplicity and clarity He considers that one of the essential goals of poetry is communion with other men and that if his poetry cannot communicate its emotive and sensorial content it fails to accomplish its mission which is the interpretation of the world As to the universal meaning of his poetic work Carrera Andrade would recall Goethe's phrase All my works are fragments of a great confession He would characterize his own work as a confession of love both for humanity and for the wonders of this world Carrera Andrade must be counted among the four or five best contemporary poets of Latin America Whether he is awarded a Nobel Prize still remains to be seen but there can be no doubt that in his poems one can detect the same literary excellence as in the work of Neruda Paz or Borges Hopefully the work of this great Ecuadorian poet will soon be universally appreciated In some of his works he can be compared to T S Eliot Hlderlin or Saint Jean Perse The publication of H R Hayes translations will for the first time make available to English speaking readers all of the significant verse of Carrera Andrade beginning with some of his first pieces from La guirnalda del silencio 1926 and ending with translations from Pos a ltima 1957 1966
