Freedom Beyond Confinement Michael Ra-Shon Hall, 2021-11-16 Freedom Beyond Confinement examines the cultural history of African American travel and the lasting influence of travel on the imagination, particularly of writers of literary fiction and nonfiction. Using the paradox of freedom and confinement to frame the ways travel represented both opportunity and restriction for African Americans, the book details the intimate connection between travel and imagination from post Reconstruction ca. 1877 to the present. Analysing a range of sources from the black press and periodicals to literary fiction and nonfiction, the book charts the development of critical representation of travel from the foundational press and periodicals which offered African Americans crucial information on travel precautions and possibilities, notably during the era of Jim Crow, to the woefully understudied literary fiction that would later provide some of the most compelling and lasting portrayals of the freedoms and constraints African Americans associated with travel. Travel experiences often challenging and vexed, provided the raw data with which writers produced images and ideas meaningful as they learned to navigate, negotiate, and even challenge racialized and gendered impediments to their mobility. In their writings, African Americans worked to realize a vision and state of freedom informed by those often difficult experiences of mobility. In telling this story, the book hopes to center literary fiction in studies of travel where fiction has largely remained absent.

A Study Guide for Langston Hughes's "Theme for English B" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016 A Study Guide for Langston Hughes's Theme for English B excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Poetry for Students. Icons of African American Literature Yolanda Williams Page, 2011-10-17 The 24 entries in this book provide extensive coverage of some of the most notable figures in African American literature, such as Alice Walker, Richard Wright, and Zora Neale Hurston. Icons of African American Literature: The Black Literary World examines 24 of the most popular and culturally significant topics within African American literature's long and immensely fascinating history. Each piece provides substantial in-depth information, much more than a typical encyclopedia entry, while remaining accessible and appealing to general and younger readers. Arranged alphabetically, the entries cover such writers as Maya Angelou, James Baldwin, and August Wilson, major works such as Invisible Man, Native Son, and Their Eyes Were Watching God, and a range of cultural topics including the Black Arts Movement, the Harlem Renaissance, and the jazz aesthetic. Written by expert contributors, the essays discuss the enduring significance of these topics in American history and popular culture. Each entry
