Secularisation In The Christian World:

Secularisation in the Christian World Callum G. Brown, Michael Francis Snape, 2010 Secularisation in the Christian World brings together leading scholars in the social history of religion and the sociology of religion to explore what we know about the decline of organised Christianity in Britain Europe the United States Canada and Australia With contributors from eight countries the volume also brings together many nations for the first consolidated international consideration of recent themes in de Christianisation

Secularisation in the Christian World Michael Snape, 2016-04-01 The power of modernity to secularise has been a foundational idea of the western world Both social science and church history understood that the Christian religion from 1750 was deeply vulnerable to industrial urbanisation and the Enlightenment But as evidence mounts that countries of the European world experienced secularising forces in different ways at different periods the timing and causes of de Christianisation are now widely seen as far from straightforward Secularisation in the Christian World brings together leading scholars in the social history of religion and the sociology of religion to explore what we know about the decline of organised Christianity in Britain Europe the United States Canada and Australia The chapters tackle different strands themes comparisons and territories to demonstrate the diversity of approach thinking and evidence that has emerged in the last 30 years of scholarship into the religious past and present The volume includes both new research and essays of theoretical reflection by the most eminent academics It highlights historians and sociologists in both agreement and dispute With contributors from eight countries the volume also brings together many nations for the first consolidated international consideration of recent themes in de Christianisation With church historians and cultural historians and religious sociologists and sociologists of the godless society this book provides a state of the art guide to secularisation studies

Secularisation Christopher Hartney, 2014-06-02 Secularisation New Historical Perspectives unveils an exciting range of case studies exploring emerging research in secularisation with an international outlook Inspired by scholarship conducted by the Religious History Association this collected volume questions the paradigm of secularisation by exploring its historical manifestations and making projections as to the future divide between religious life and the secular world A must read for anyone interested in events and personalities that shaped the religious landscape of the present this volume contains meticulous historical research It also presents a strong focus on the Southern Hemisphere which is often largely absent in discussions of secularity Topics covered here include schisms between secularism and Christianity in Australia and on a global scale Jesuit frontier missions in Ibero America the publically religious displays of the Salvation Army competition between church life and emerging recreational pursuits at the turn of the century Joseph Fletcher s contributions ethical secularity the privileged place of Christianity within the Queensland educational system notions of religiously justified violence amongst the ANZAC forces and the ongoing debate between constitutional secularity and Christian nationhood in the United States of America from its foundation up until the present day The latter part of the volume explores the secularisation paradigm as a cultural creation in its own right an important consideration for any scholar in this field To this end the authors explore the mythic status of secularisation as a social and historical concept question the validity of historical approaches to this discourse explore whether or not definitions of religion are too conservative to be workable and pose the question of whether or not secular institutions like state museums are really what they claim to be The role of religion in public life is a fascinating question to explore and one that must be tackled via a truly international exploration of secularisation So too must the inquisitive scholar consider the very nature of the terms employed in research Secularisation New Historical Perspectives is the perfect toolkit for such investigations Secularization in the Long 1960s Clive D. Field,2017-03-16 Secularization in the Long 1960s Numerating Religion in Britain provides a major empirical contribution to the literature of secularization It moves beyond the now largely sterile and theoretical debates about the validity of the secularization thesis or paradigm Combining historical and social scientific perspectives Clive D Field uses a wide range of quantitative sources to probe the extent and pace of religious change in Britain during the long 1960s In most cases data is presented for the years 1955 80 with particular attention to the methodological and other challenges posed by each source type Following an introductory chapter which reviews the historiography introduces the sources and defines the chronological and other parameters Field provides evidence for all major facets of religious belonging behaving and believing as well as for institutional church measures The work engages with and largely refutes Callum G Brown s influential assertion that Britain experienced revolutionary secularization in the 1960s which was highly gendered in nature and with 1963 the major tipping point Instead a more nuanced picture emerges with some religious indicators in crisis others continuing on an existing downward trajectory and yet others remaining stable Building on previous research by the author and other scholars and rejecting recent proponents of counter secularization the long 1960s are ultimately located within the context of a longstanding gradualist and still ongoing process of secularization in Britain The Rise of the Global South Elijah Jong Fil Kim,2012-04-06 Global Christianity has been experiencing an unprecedented historical transition from the West to the non Western world The leadership of global Christianity has taken on a new face since the twentieth century Christendom in Europe and America has experienced a great decline while there has been a rise in Majority World Christianity Churches in the Global South have given their voices to global Christianity through their leadership world mission movements and theology The phenomenal church growth has risen from the Pentecostal and Charismatic movement Pentecostalism has become the dominant force in global Christianity today The Rise of the Global South examines the significance this shift has had on global Christianity by going through the history of Christianity in the West and the causes of the shift Secularization Revisited - Teaching of Religion and the State of Denmark Niels Reeh,2016-08-03 Since 2001 history has proven the classic and once dominant theories of secularization wrong Instead of abandoning the subject of secularization Niels Reeh s Secularization Revisited demonstrates how the collapse of formerly dominant secularization theories indicates fundamental conceptual challenges within sociology Through a historical sociological case study of the political decision making concerning the teaching of religion in Denmark from 1721 to 2006 Reeh explains why sociology of religion and sociology more generally should pay more attention to interstate relations state form and state agency The Danish state s interest in its inhabitants religion over the last three centuries responded not only to religious motives but to concerns about foreign relations and the survival of the state 2011 ,2013-03-01 Particularly in the humanities and social sciences festschrifts are a popular forum for discussion The IJBF provides quick and easy general access to these important resources for scholars and students The festschrifts are located in state and regional libraries and their bibliographic details are recorded Since 1983 more than 639 000 articles from more than 29 500 festschrifts published between 1977 and 2010 have been catalogued

Belief, Law and Politics Marie-Claire Foblets,Katayoun Alidadi,Zeynep Yanasmayan,2016-04-15 This edited collection gathers together the principal findings of the three year RELIGARE project which dealt with the question of religious and philosophical diversity in European law Specifically it covers four spheres of public policy and legislation where the pressure to accommodate religious diversity has been most strongly felt in Europe employment family life use of public space and state support mechanisms Embracing a forward looking approach the final RELIGARE report provides recommendations to governance units at the local national and European levels regarding issues of religious pluralism and secularism This volume adds context and critique to those recommendations and more generally opens an intellectual discussion on the topic of religion in the European Union The book consists of two main parts the first includes the principal findings of the RELIGARE research project while the second is a compilation of 28 short contributions from influential scholars legal practitioners policy makers and activists who respond to the report and offer their views on the sensitive issue of religious diversity and the law in Europe

The Future of Christianity David Martin,2016-03-16 This book offers a mature assessment of themes preoccupying David Martin over some fifty years complementing his book On Secularization Deploying secularisation as an omnibus word bringing many dimensions into play Martin argues that the boundaries of the concept of secularisation must not be redefined simply to cover aberrant cases as when the focus was more on America as an exception rather than on Europe as an exception to the furiously religious character of the rest of the world Particular themes of focus include the dialectic of Christianity and secularization the relation of Christianity to multiple enlightenments and modes of modernity the enigmas of East Germany and Eastern Europe and the rise of the transnational religious voluntary association including Pentecostalism as that feeds into vast religious changes in the developing world Doubts are cast on the idea that religion has ever been privatised and has lately reentered the public realm The rest of the book deals with the relation of the Christian repertoire to the nexus of religion and politics including democracy and violence and sharply criticises polemical assertions of a special relation of religion to violence and explores the contributions of cognitive science to the debate mature assessment of themes preoccupying David Martin over some fifty years complementing his book On Secularization. Deploying secularisation as an omnibus word bringing many dimensions into play Martin argues that the boundaries of the concept of secularisation must not be redefined simply to cover aberrant cases as when the focus was more on America as an exception rather than on Europe as an exception to the furiously religious character of the rest of the world. Particular themes of focus include the dialectic of Christianity and secularization the relation of Christianity to multiple enlightenments and modes of modernity the enigmas of East Germany and Eastern Europe and the rise of the transnational religious voluntary association including Pentecostalism as that feeds into vast religious changes in the developing world. Doubts are cast on the idea that religion has ever been privatised and has lately reentered the public realm. The rest of the book deals with the relation of the Christian repertoire to the nexus of religion and politics including democracy and violence and sharply criticises polemical assertions of a special relation of religion to violence and explores the contributions of cognitive science to the debate.
