The Cold War Begins, 1945–1960

STARTUP QUESTION - Step into the Place:

Read and discuss the primary sources on pages 394-395

How do the United States and the Soviet Union each seem to be interpreting the intentions of the other nation?

US perspective -> The driving force behind the imperialism camp is the USA. The cardinal purpose of the imperialism camp is to strengthen imperialism, to hatch a new imperialism war, to combat socialism and democracy, and to support the reactionary and antidemocratic profascist regimes.

USSR perspective -> The USSR still believes in antagonistic capitalist encirclement with which in the long run there can be no permanent peaceful existence.

Lesson 1 The Origins of the Cold War

I. Building a New World

A. In July of 1944, President Roosevelt invited world leaders to Bretton Woods, NH, with the purpose of organizing the world's postwar economic systems. At the conference leaders created two key institutions: the World Bank, which lends money to weaker nations, and the International Monetary Fund (IMF) which helps nations with trade deficits (import more than they export).

B. Also in 1944 delegates from 39 nations met in the city of Washington DC to discuss a new organization called the United Nations (UN). This organization would have a General Assembly of member nations and also a Security Council of eleven members.

C. When the Soviet Union liberated Poland in 1944, they encouraged the establishment of a Communist Government government. The pre-war government had fled to Britain. Churchill and Roosevelt agreed to recognize the government if members of the pre-war government were included and that two elections be held as soon as possible.

D. The leaders issued the Declaration of Liberated Europe that asserted all nations have the right to choose government.

E. The Allies divided Germany into four zones. Each one would be controlled by one Allied nation. They also insisted Germany pay heavy reparations for the war.

F. Tension between the United States and the Soviet Union led to the Cold War. The Soviets believed in a communist economic system. U.S. leaders believed that an enterprise system was the key to peace.

II. Truman Takes Control

A. In July 1945 Truman and Stalin met at the Potsdam Conference. Truman believed an industry was crucial for Germany, while the Soviet Union believed it needed reparations from Germany.

B. The Soviets refused to uphold the Declaration of Liberated Europe (DLE). The countries of Eastern Europe would set up Communist governments and came to be known as satellite nations. Churchill later described it as an iron curtain falling across Eastern Europe.

The Alienation Effect Owen Hatherley, 2025-03-27 Britain Made in Europe In the 1930s tens of thousands of central Europeans sought sanctuary from fascism in Britain While the rainy seemingly quaint island they discovered on arrival was a far cry from the dynamism of Weimar Berlin or Red Vienna it was safe and it became home Yet the migr s had not arrived alone they brought with them new and radical ideas and as they began to rebuild their lives and livelihoods they transformed the face of Britain forever Drawing on an immense cast of artists and intellectuals including celebrated figures like Erno Goldfinger forgotten luminaries like Ruth Glass and a host of larger than life visionaries and charlatans the historian Owen Hatherley argues that in the resulting clash between European modernism and British moderation our imaginations were fundamentally realigned and remade for the better In casting what Bertolt Brecht called in a new German word a Verfremdungseffekt an alienation effect on Britain the aliens made us all a little bit alien too

Provocative entertaining and meticulously researched The Alienation Effect opens our eyes to the influence of the migr s all around us many of our most quintessentially British icons are the product of this culture clash and entreats us to remember and renew our proud national tradition of asylum instruction Student questions are organized in the back for easy use in testing and review Teachers parents or students can grade assignments daily or weekly As the teacher you will enjoy partnering with your student as he or she processes American history while developing or strengthening a Christian world view Global Rules James E. Cronin, 2014-10-28 Questions long perceived views of post World War II America and its position in the world especially after Vietnam The author details the challenges the economic transition of the 1970s and 1980s engendered as the US and Great Britain together actively pursued their shared ideal of an international assemblage of market based democratic states The Proliferation Puzzle Zachary S. Davis, Benjamin Frankel, 2020-12-01 Originally published in 1993 this volume was unique in its scope and approach Unlike most literature on nuclear weapons proliferation at the time the essays in this volume offer theoretical discussions and suggest testable hypotheses about the causes and effects of nuclear weapons proliferation The proliferation of nuclear weapons is an ideal subject for social science scholarship and such scholarship is especially timely now Among the topics discussed in The Proliferation Puzzle are The building of nuclear weapons is a complex task touching upon many of the subjects of study at the core of social science and international relations Nuclear weapons may be acquired as a hedge against external threat for reasons of national prestige or as a result of pressures by domestic coalitions among scientists bureaucrats and the military They may be sought for defensive purposes or to support hegemonic aspirations Nuclear weapons also raise questions about civilian command and control especially in crisis situations During the last two decades the acquisition of nuclear weapons has been proscribed by the non proliferation regime The decisions countries made about acquiring these weapons and the manner they chose to build them serve as a test of the efficacy of this particular regime and of international regimes more generally Nuclear weapons were introduced at the time bipolarity became the international order As the world moves away from bipolarity there is a need to answer questions such as What would be the effect of nuclear weapons in a multipolar order How will the spread of nuclear weapons affect the distribution of capabilities among states If nuclear weapons spread to additional countries will they enhance stability or exacerbate instability Can the spread of these weapons be managed or controlled This book brings together scholars from different schools within international relations and the social sciences to address the question of why nuclear weapons spread A disciplined rigorous examination of proliferation is important not only for scholarship but also for informed policymaking The purpose of social science is to formulate hypotheses and devise theories that advance our understanding of society and aid in the fashioning of enlightened policy The essays in this volume show how explicit hypotheses about the causes and consequences of nuclear weapons proliferation provide a deeper understanding of the problem and suggest specific theory informed policy recommendations
