Our Reasonable Faith Bavinck

John Bowlin

Our Reasonable Faith Bavinck:

Our Reasonable Faith Herman Bavinck, 1956 Our Reasonable Faith is an accessible digest of the author's famous four volume Reformed Dogmatics and clearly presents the fundamental doctrines of Biblical theology. A practical handbook of theology, it is an outstanding and comprehensive statement of Christian faith and doctrine. Fully supported by Scriptural references, this book provides students, teachers, pastors, and lay readers with a readable, thorough, and systematic presentation of God's revelation.

Our Reasonable Faith Herman Bavinck, 1977

Justification and the Kingdom of God, Volume Two Paul Chul Hong Kang, 2025-02-11 The Justification and Kingdom of God series seeks to answer the question: How can justified Christians in Jesus bear the fruit of faith reflecting growth in God's image? To address this, the series helps readers understand what happens to the image bearers of God in Adam or in Jesus Christ. This reveals the deeper meaning of the gospel and the restoration of God's image, uncovering hidden treasures. Now the challenge is whether the reader will accept these treasures. The Kingdom of Justification strengthens readers with the truth that eternal life, becoming the children of the living God through Jesus's perfect obedience, includes the restoration of God's image in Jesus. This restoration, achieved through Jesus, defines human wisdom, knowledge, righteousness, holiness, and goodness in Christ as God's children. This book warns against following intellectualism and moralism in liberals, which are driven by the marred image of God due to Adam's sin, as guides for one's thoughts and actions. Justification by God's grace alone is the foundation of true Christian growth in Jesus, the core of a Christian's identity, and the source of gratitude, joy, and peace. This book continually encourages readers: Don't give up on yourself. You are a child of God.

The Formation of Christian Doctrine Malcolm B. Yarnell, Malcolm B. Yarnell, III, 2007 The Formation of Christian Doctrine is an advanced academic study of how Christian doctrine develops, distinguishing in particular between scholarly term invention and less revelatory process of invention.

Trinity and Organism James Eglinton, 2012-03-29 This book explores the organic motif found throughout the writings of the Dutch Calvinist theologian Herman Bavinck (1854-1921). Noting that Bavinck uses this motif at key points in the most important loci of theology (Christology, general and special revelation, ecclesiology, and so forth), it seems that one cannot read him carefully without particular attention to his motif of choice: the organic. By examining the sense in which Bavinck views all of reality as a beautiful balance of unity in diversity, James Eglinton draws the reader to Bavinck's constant concern for the doctrine of God as Trinity. If God is the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, Bavinck argues, the creation must be more akin to an organism than a machine. Trinity and organism are thus closely linked concepts. Eglinton critiques and rejects the two Bavinck's: one orthodox and the other modern hermeneutic so commonplace in discussions of Bavinck's theology. Instead, this book argues for a reunited Herman Bavinck as a figure committed to the participation of historic orthodox theology in the modern world.

Justification and the Kingdom of God, Volume Three Paul Chul Hong Kang, 2025-02-20 The Justification and Kingdom of God series seeks to answer the question: How can justified Christians in Jesus bear the fruit of faith reflecting growth in God's image To address this the series helps readers understand what happens to the image bearers of God in Adam or in Jesus Christ This reveals the deeper meaning of the gospel and the restoration of God's image uncovering hidden treasures Now the challenge is whether the reader will accept these treasures The Kingdom of Faith asks a significant question What is the highest goal of your life The Bible teaches that this goal is the growth of God's image within humanity a promise that has never failed A life conformed to the image of Jesus Christ brings great joy to humanity's Heavenly Father and glorifies him Such a life invites the help of the Holy Spirit and carries eternal value in Jesus This book encourages readers to see earthly life as a precious opportunity to think speak and live in a way that loves God and one's neighbor by faith This reminds readers that Our Father does far more abundantly than all that we ask or think according to the power that works within us

Saving the Earth? E. M. Conradie, 2013 Christians seeking to save the Earth have to relate creation to salvation by doing justice to both themes This study explores the ambiguous legacy of the ways in which this challenge has been approached in the reformed tradition of Swiss Dutch and German origins and in the reception of this tradition in South Africa The book focuses on the diverging interpretations of the category of re-creation in this regard Series Studies in Religion and the Environment Studien zur Religion und Umwelt Vol 8

'For Their Rock is not as Our Rock' Daniel Strange, 2015-05-08 The reality of our post Christendom post colonial post Holocaust post 9/11 multi ethnic and multicultural context has meant that more than ever Christians are acutely aware of the questions posed not simply by the existence of other religions but also by their apparent flourishing If secularization is still alive and well then seemingly so too is society's sacralization Hence the theology of religions is arguably the issue for mission in the twenty first century However there has been little evangelical theology that offers a detailed comprehensive and biblically faithful analysis that deals with not only the question of salvation but also questions of truth the nature and history of human religiosity and a host of practical issues pertaining to apologetics and contextualization In this ambitious interdisciplinary study which synthesizes close exegesis biblical theology systematics and insights from the social sciences Daniel Strange examines the origins development and idolatry of the religious Other and explores how the gospel of Jesus Christ is its subversive fulfilment He concludes with a missiological postscript and some pastoral perspectives on the purpose of other religions in God's providence

The Kuyper Center Review, Volume 2 John Bowlin, 2011 Includes papers presented at conferences sponsored by the Abraham Kuyper Center for Public Theology at Princeton Theological Seminary over the last two years Introduction

Hidden and Revealed Dmytro Bintsarovskiy, 2021-07-14 A major contribution to ecumenical reflection on the doctrine of God The past century has seen renewed interest in the doctrine of God While theological traditions disagree their shared commitment to Nicene orthodoxy provides a common language for thinking and speaking about God This dialogue has deepened our understanding of this shared way of thinking about God but little has been done across ecumenical lines to explore God's hiddenness in revelation In Hidden and Revealed Dmytro Bintsarovskiy explores the hiddenness and revelation of God in two separate theological streams Reformed and Orthodox Bintsarovskiy shows that an understanding of both traditions reflects a deep structure of shared language history and commitments while nevertheless reflecting real differences With Herman Bavinck and John Meyendorff as his guides Bintsarovskiy advances ecumenical dialogue on a doctrine central to our knowledge of God
