Bodies at War Belinda Linn

Rincón,2017-10-31 The book examines the rise of neoliberal militarism from the early 1970s to the present and its destructive impact on democratic practices economic policies notions of citizenship race relations and gender norms by focusing on how these changes affect the Chicana community and cultural production Provided by publisher Political Theories of Decolonization Margaret Kohn,Keally McBride,2011-03-16 Political Theories of Decolonization provides an introduction to some of the seminal texts of postcolonial political theory Many theorists have pointed out that the colonized subject was a divided subject This book argues that the postcolonial state was a divided state Providing readers access to texts that add to our understanding of contemporary political life and global political dynamics it illuminates how many of the central questions of political theory such as land religion freedom law and sovereignty are imaginatively explored by postcolonial thinkers Democracy Beyond the Nation State Joe Parker,2017-06-26 Explores egalitarian means of governing found in rural villages and urban neighborhoods indigenous communities workplaces social movement organizations and other everyday local and global settings beyond the nation state The Ghost Apple Aaron Thier,2014-03-04 At the turn of the eighteenth century John Morehead Tripoli is marooned on the unspoiled Caribbean island of St Renard There he lives for an idyllic year in a community of Carawak Indians Three hundred years later the Carawak are gone St Renard is carpeted with banana plantations and sugarcane fields and Tripoli himself is remembered only through his grandson founder of New Hampshire s Tripoli College which maintains a branch campus on the island The college never prosperous has been forced to enter into a coercive financial relationship with snack food giant Big Anna Brands the same corporation that controls most of the land on St Renard Big Anna deposes the college president uses students and faculty as test subjects for a dietary and mood additive called Malpraxalin and hijacks the St Renard campus for a field studies program At the heart of this twisted satire are two souls in transition Bill Brees is a grandfatherly dean undercover as a Tripoli freshman and bemused by how things have changed since his undergrad days Maggie Bell is an African American student startled into the realization that nothing really changes at all When these unlikely friends both elect to spend their spring semesters in the Caribbean they will see a side of Big Anna even uglier than they could have imagined The Ghost Apple develops through a varied and colorful collection of documents including tourism pamphlets blog posts slave narratives and personal correspondence Slowly these texts reveal the extent of Tripoli s current crisis and highlight those historical crises in the midst of which the college and the nation were founded The Alienated Academic Richard Hall,2018-08-25 Higher education is increasingly unable to engage usefully with global emergencies as its functions are repurposed for value Discourses of entrepreneurship impact and excellence realised through competition and the market mean that academics and students are increasingly alienated from themselves and their work This book applies Marx s concept of alienation to the realities of academic life in the Global North in order to explore how the idea of public education is subsumed under the law of value In a landscape of increased commodification of higher education the book explores the relationship between alienation and crisis before analysing how academic knowledge work identity and life are themselves alienated Finally it argues that through indignant struggle another world is possible grounded in alternative forms of organising life and producing socially useful knowledge ultimately requiring the abolition of academic labour This pioneering work will be of interest and value to all those working in the higher education sector as well as those concerned with the rise of neoliberalism and marketization within universities
