Our Aesthetic Categories Zany Cute Interesting:

Our Aesthetic Categories Sianne Ngai, 2015-10-02 The zany the cute and the interesting saturate postmodern culture dominating the look of its art and commodities as well as our ways of speaking about the ambivalent feelings these objects often inspire In this study Ngai offers an aesthetic theory for the hypercommodified mass mediated performance driven world of late capitalism

Sensoria McKenzie Wark, 2020-08-18 As we face the compounded crises of late capitalism environmental catastrophe and technological transformation who are the thinkers and the ideas who will allow us to understand the world we live in McKenzie Wark surveys three areas at the cutting edge of current critical thinking design environment technology and introduces us to the thinking of nineteen major writers Each chapter is a concise account of an individual thinker providing useful context and connections to the work of the others The authors include Sianne Ngai Kodwo Eshun Lisa Nakamura Hito Steyerl Yves Citton Randy Martin Jackie Wang Anna Lowenhaupt Tsing Achille Mbembe Deborah Danowich and Eduardo Viveiros de Castro Eyal Weizman Cory Doctorow Benjamin Bratton Tiziana Terranova Keller Easterling Jussi Parikka Wark argues that we are too often told that expertise is obtained by specialisation Sensoria connects the themes and arguments across intellectual silos They explore the edges of disciplines to show how we might know the world through the study of culture the different notions of how we create such things and the impact that the machines that we devise have had upon us The book is a vital and timely introduction to the future both as a warning but also as a road map on how we might find our way out of the current crisis

Fun, Taste, & Games John Sharp, David Thomas, 2019-03-12 Reclaiming fun as a meaningful concept for understanding games and play Fun is somewhat ambiguous If something is fun is it pleasant Entertaining Silly A way to trick students into learning Fun also has baggage it seems inconsequential embarrassing child's play In Fun Taste the seminal but underinfluential game Myst and how tastes change over time the shattering of the gamer community in Gamergate and an aesthetics of play that goes beyond games

Voices in Aerosol Caitlin Frances Bruce, 2024-01-09 Winner Visual Communication Division Outstanding Book Award National Communication Association NCA How a city government in central Mexico evolved from waging war on graffiti in the early 2000s to sanctioning its creation a decade later and how youth navigated these changing conditions for producing art The local government residents and media outlets in Le n Mexico treated graffiti as a disease until the state began sponsoring artistic graffiti through a program of its own In Voices in Aerosol the first book length study of state sponsored graffiti Caitlin Frances Bruce considers the changing perceptions and recognition of graffiti artists their right to the city and the use of public space over the span of eighteen years 2000 2018 Focusing on the midsized city of Le n Bruce offers readers a look at the way negotiations with the neoliberal state unfolded at different levels and across decades Issues brought to light in this case study such as graffiti as a threat and graffiti as a sign of gentrification resonate powerfully with those germane to other urban landscapes throughout the Western Hemisphere and beyond Combining archival work interviews considerations of urban planning local politics in Mexico and insights gained by observing graffiti events and other informal artistic encounters Bruce offers a new lens through which to understand the interplay between sanctioned and unsanctioned forms of cultural expression Ultimately Voices in Aerosol builds a strong case for graffiti as a contested tool for voicing public demands

Poetry in General Keegan Cook Finberg, 2025-11-04 In the second half of the twentieth century poetry leapt out of books and became an interdisciplinary public form Poetry entered bureaucratic systems of organization like index card catalogues it pushed the boundaries of privately owned public parks Keegan Cook Finberg argues that poetry became an increasingly capacious force during this period because it could speak directly to the degradation of the social democratic notion of the public Poetry in General explores how poets expanded their practice into the realms of politics work and everyday life from 1960 to the present from the apex of the welfare state to an era of privatization and austerity It considers a compelling array of figures including Yoko Ono George Brecht Frank O Hara Amiri Baraka Bernadette Mayer Eleanor Antin Adrian Piper and M NourbeSe Philip whose works draw on conceptual techniques to transform official documents and spaces Finberg shows how these public texts expose the mechanisms of the neoliberal consensus about work and leisure the state's facilitation of capitalism and enduring racial and gender inequities She also provides politically charged ways to interpret and critique racial capitalism antiabortion legislation and mass debt A new literary and institutional history of postwar poetics this book shows how poetic experiments address the privatization of collective life and rethink the category of the public The

Loustaunau, Lauren E. Shaw, 2021-11-02 This book is a collection of edited

theoretical essays on the power of contemporary documentary film to voice the social agency of Latin American immigrants to the United States and Europe and to reveal some of the global systemic conditions that generate mass migrations and lead to the dehumanization of undocumented immigrants Linking the function of documentary to represent immigrants as performing agents whose voices generally are not heard publicly this volume also features interviews with prominent documentarians whose films and videos respond to conditions of migration from a variety of perspectives Reading Sideways Dana Seitler,2019-07-02 Reading Sideways explores the pivotal role that various art forms played in American literary fiction in direct relation to the politics of gender and sexuality in works of modern American literature It tracks the crosswise circulation of aesthetic ideas in fiction and argues that at stake in the aesthetic turn of these works was not only the theorization of aesthetic experience but also an engagement with political arguments and debates about available modes of sociability and sexual expression To track these engagements its author Dana Seitler performs a method she calls lateral reading a mode of interpretation that moves horizontally through various historical entanglements and across the fields of the arts to make sense of and see in a new light their connections challenges and productive frictions Each chapter takes a different art form as its object sculpture portraiture homecraft and opera These art forms appear in some of the major works of literature of the period central to negotiations of gender race and sexuality including those by Henry James Davis Willa Cather Du Bois Sarah Orne Jewett and Mary Wilkins Freeman But the literary texts that each chapter of this book takes as its motivation not only include a specific art form or object as central to its politics they also build an alternative aesthetic vocabulary through which they seek to alter challenge or participate in the making of social and sexual life By cultivating a counter aesthetics of the unfinished the uncertain the small the low and the allusive these fictions recognize other ways of knowing and being than those oriented toward reductively gendered accounts of beauty classed imperatives established by the norms of taste or apolitical treatises of sexual disinterestedness And within them and through reading sideways we can witness the coming into legibility of a set of diffuse practices that provide a pivot point for engaging the political methods of minoritized subjects at the turn of the twentieth century Evaluations of US Poetry since 1950, Volume 1 Robert von Hallberg,Robert Faggen,2021-12-01

Over the last sixty years scholars and critics have focused on literary history and interpretation rather than literary value When value is addressed the standards are usually political and identitarian The essays collected in both volumes of Evaluations of US Poetry since 1950 move away from esoteric literary criticism toward a more evaluative and speculative inquiry that will serve as the basis from which poets will be discussed and taught over the next half century and beyond Von Hallberg and Faggen have curated a diverse selection of authors to explore this topic Volume 1 focuses on voice language form and musicality Stephen Yenser writes about Elizabeth Bishop Stephanie Burt about C D Wright Nigel Smith about Paul Simon and Marjorie Perloff about Charles Bernstein among others The essays do not provide an exhaustive survey of recent poetry Instead Evaluations of US Poetry since 1950 presents readers with more than thirty different models of literary absorption and advocacy This is done in explicit hope of reorienting the criticism of poetry

Staging Decadence Adam Alston,2023-09-07 Winner of the 2024 TaPRA David Bradby Monograph Prize How is decadence being staged today as a practice issue pejorative and as a site of pleasure Where might we find it why might we look for it and who is decadence for This book is the first monographic study of decadence in theatre and performance Adam

Alston makes a passionate case for the contemporary relevance of decadence in the thick of a resurgent culture war by focusing on its antithetical relationship to capitalist led growth progress and intensified productivity He argues that the qualities used to disparage the study and practice of theatre and performance are the very things we should embrace in celebrating their value namely their spectacular uselessness wastefulness outmodedness and abundant potential for producing forms of creativity that flow away from the ends and excesses of capitalism Alston covers an eclectic range of examples by Julia Bardsley UK Hasard Le Sin Finland jaamil olawale kosoko USA Toco Nikaido Japan Martin O Brien UK Toshiki Okada Japan Marcel l Ant nez Roca Spain Normandy Sherwood USA The Uhuruverse USA Nia O Witherspoon USA and Wunderbaum Netherlands Expect ruminations on monstrous scenographies catatonic choreographies turbo charged freneticism visions of the apocalypse and what might lie in its wake
