Outrageous Women Of Colonial America:

Outrageous Women of Colonial America Mary Rodd Furbee, 2001-01 Life in Colonial America Russell Roberts, 2010-12-23 From the moment Europeans stumbled across North America at the end of the fifteenth century monarchs and investors sought to exploit the land's riches. With high expectations, colonists sailed across the Atlantic seeking a better life and perhaps even fortune. But life in America was harder than they thought. Several colonies failed and without the help of friendly Native Americans, others may not have made it either. Even after the colonists learned how to build houses, hunt, and farm, life remained hard for all concerned. Men had to plant and tend crops, hunt wild game, and fix anything that broke. Women had to take care of children, sew, cook, and perform dozens of other duties. Children also had a list of chores that they had to perform every day. There was so much work in fact that colonists began using indentured servants and then slaves from Africa to plant and harvest their crops. Learn what daily life was like for the colonists and how their successes affected the Native Americans and governments in other countries.

Of Colonial America Mary Rodd Furbee, 2001-01-01 A new addition to the Outrageous Women series introduces a refreshing assortment of brave and unique women from America's earliest days including Mercy Warren, America's first female playwright, Peggy Arnold, the wife of Benedict Arnold, and others.

Women Who Dared Linda Skeers, 2017-09-05 The perfect introduction for learning about women throughout history who dared to do the extraordinary. Inspire our new generation of women to explore, discover, persist, succeed, and fight like a girl. A great gift for girls 9-12. Women have been doing amazing, daring, and dangerous things for years, but they're rarely mentioned in our history books as adventurers, daredevils, or rebels. This new compilation of brief biographies features women throughout history who have risked their lives for adventure, many of whom you may not know, but all of whom you'll WANT to know, such as Annie Edson Taylor, the first person who dared to go over Niagara Falls in a barrel; Valentina Tereshkova, the first woman who dared to fly in space; Helen Gibson, the first woman who dared to be a professional stunt person. And many more. If you and your child enjoyed She Persisted by Chelsea Clinton, Little Dreamers, Goodnight Stories for Rebel Girls, or Girls Think of Everything, you will love reading Women Who Dared.
