Rethinking The Power Of Maps Rethinking The Power Of Maps:

Rethinking the Power of Maps Denis Wood,2010-04-16 A contemporary follow up to the groundbreaking Power of Maps this book takes a fresh look at what maps do whose interests they serve and how they can be used in surprising creative and radical ways Denis Wood describes how cartography facilitated the rise of the modern state and how maps continue to embody and project the interests of their creators He demystifies the hidden assumptions of mapmaking and explores the promises and limitations of diverse counter mapping practices today Thought provoking illustrations include U S Geological Survey maps electoral and transportation maps and numerous examples of critical cartography participatory GIS and map art

Mapping Beyond Measure Simon Ferdinand,2019-12-01 Over the last century a growing number of visual artists have been captivated by the entwinements of beauty and power truth and artifice and the fantasy and functionality they perceive in geographical mapmaking This field of map art has moved into increasing prominence in recent years yet critical writing on the topic has been largely confined to general overviews of the field In Mapping Beyond Measure Simon Ferdinand analyzes diverse map based works of painting collage film walking performance and digital drawing made in Britain Japan the Netherlands Ukraine the United States and the former Soviet Union arguing that together they challenge the dominant modern view of the world as a measurable and malleable geometrical space This challenge has strong political ramifications for it is on the basis of modernity s geometrical worldview that states have legislated over social space that capital has coordinated global markets and exploited distant environments and that powerful cartographic institutions have claimed exclusive authority in mapmaking Mapping Beyond Measure breaks fresh ground in undertaking a series of close readings of significant map artworks in sustained dialogue with spatial theorists including Peter Sloterdijk Zygmunt Bauman and Michel de Certeau In so doing Ferdinand reveals how map art calls into question some of the central myths and narratives of rupture through which modern space has traditionally been imagined and establishes map art s distinct value amid broader contemporary shifts toward digital mapping

Tracks on the Ocean Sara Caputo,2024-08-29 Longlisted for the 2025 BSHS Hughes Prize Enthralling Philip Ball Ingenious Sujit Sivasundaram In Tracks on the Ocean Sara Caputo tells how our journeys around the globe became fixed lines on maps and how journey lines themselves reshaped maps and the way that we view the world From Captain Cook s route across the South Seas to the disorientating power of digital technology the tracks we ve left on the oceans trading exploring and conquering are a hidden record of humanity s impact on the planet Revealing their histories Caputo uncovers a fascinating new history of maritime travel and modernity Weaving human history cartography literature and climate science Tracks on the Ocean reveals how on the path to discovery we have changed the world

William Blake and the Cartographic Imagination Caroline Anjali Ritchie,2025-02-24 This book contributes to current discussions about the meaning history and theorisation of maps The monograph focuses on William Blake 1757 1827 whose astute critical angle on cartography invites us to think in a new light about mapping in the eighteenth century commonly regarded as a key phase within the history of European cartography Ritchie positions Blake as a participant in a vibrant mesh of cartographic practices seeking out his antecedents peers interlocutors and followers She characterises Blake s participation in cartographic culture as both energetic and uneasy In addition the book traces Blake s legacy as a point of contact for London based psychogeographical writers and small press publishers seeking to rethink the nature of maps and mapping in recent years and up to the present day Through its exploration of Blake s poetry art and legacy this book aims to pluralise and enrich conceptions of cartography from the eighteenth century to the present
