E. Breen D. D., Aeterna Press, We live in an age of great activity It is also an age wherein material progress and the love of worldly pleasure tend to enfeeble man's hold on the supernatural world. It is most evident that there is a general movement away from the spiritual world. In non-Catholic thought the idea of a reduced Christianity is dominant. A mere natural religion recommends itself to many. The natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God for they are foolishness unto him and he cannot know them because they are spiritually examined. 1 Cor 2:14. Instead of accepting religion as a mysterious message from Heaven men make a religion that is not religious. A religion is sought that will not interfere with man's worldly tastes and pleasures. Human reason is made the judge of all the works of God.
