Study Guide The Wordsmith Guides, 2019-09-09 The Commentary scholarly in its focus yet informal in its tone explores the text's significant detail in order to bring out its full meaning and meanings It takes students and general readers through the play line by line and asks along the way a succession of penetrating questions as a means of clarifying what's really being said by the characters why they do what they do and why Shakespeare has them speak and act in those ways It provides specific support for students working towards examinations within a range of assessment structures at both high school and college level but it will be enjoyed by all lovers of Shakespeare A major focus throughout is on what makes Othello successful not only as literature but as a piece of working theatre The Commentary is designed to be used alongside any edition of the play since it includes running line references in the margin and is therefore easy to align with the play's text An Elementary Greek Grammar Intended as a Companion to the Public School Latin Primer Edward St. John Parry, 1882

Edexcel GCSE Drama Study Guide Rhinegold Education, 2016-09-09 Gender, Mediation, and Popular Education in Venice, 1760-1830 Susan Dalton, 2023-10-11 Gender Mediation and Popular Education in Venice 1760 1830 examines how women with enough cultural capital could turn their identity as representatives of the public those on the receiving end of education to their advantage producing knowledge under the guise of relaying it Author Susan Dalton demonstrates how elite women turned their reputation for ignorance into an opportunity to establish themselves as published authors at the dawn of the nineteenth century in Venice Many literary figures saw women as a group in need of education By deploying essentialist understandings of femininity whereby women possessed superior moral virtue but deficient rationality these women entered the world of print as cultural mediators identified by contemporaries as key players in the social projects of public education and moral edification central to the European Enlightenment Focussing on Isabella Teotochi Albrizzi and Giustina Renier Michiel both renowned Venetian authors Dalton introduces two well known Italian women of letters to English speaking scholars re evaluates the impact of their writing in Italy and raises questions about female authorship across Europe broadens our conceptions of gender norms and enriches our knowledge of a little known period of women's writing in Italy This volume is an essential resource for students and scholars alike interested in women's and gender history early modern history and social and cultural history New England Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell, Albert Edward Winship, Anson Wood Belding, 1879 The Public School Latin Primer Benjamin Hall Kennedy, 1882 The Journal of Education, 1891 Common School Education and Teachers World, 1894 Blanks, Print, Space, and Void in English Renaissance Literature Jonathan Sawday, 2023-06-20 Blanks Print Space and Void in English Renaissance Literature is an inquiry into the empty spaces encountered not just on the pages of printed books in c 1500 1700 but in Renaissance culture more generally The book argues that print culture in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries helped to foster the modern idea of the gap where words texts images and ideas are constructed as missing lost withheld fragmented or perhaps never devised in the first place It re imagines how early modern people reacted not just to printed books and documents of many different kinds but also how the very idea of emptiness or absence began to be fashioned in a way which still surrounds us Jonathan Sawday leads the reader through the entire landscape of early modern print culture discussing topics such as space and silence the exploration of the vacuum the ways in which race and racial identity in early modern England were constructed by the language and technology of print blackness and whiteness together with lightness darkness and sightlessness cartography and emptiness the effect of typography on reading practices the social spaces of the page gendered surfaces hierarchies of information books of memory pages constructed as waste or vacant the genesis of blank forms and early modern bureaucracy the political and devotional spaces of printed books the impact of censorship and the problem posed by texts which lack endings or conclusions The book itself ends by dwelling on blank or empty pages as a sign of human mortality Sawday pays close attention to the writings of many of the familiar figures in English Renaissance literary culture Sidney Shakespeare Donne Jonson and Milton for example as well as introducing readers to a host of lesser known figures The book also discusses the work of numerous women writers from the period including Aphra Behn Ann Bradstreet Margaret Cavendish Lady Jane Gray Lucy Hutchinson melia Lanyer Isabella Whitney and Lady Mary Wroth
