Other Wise Preaching A Postmodern Ethic For Homiletics:

Other-wise Preaching John S McClure, 2001-12-01 John McClure's book is a double treasure. It tracks the way North American homileticians have responded to the cultural, social, and philosophical movements of recent decades and it introduces the reader to both linguistic and ethical ways to deconstruct preaching. Edward Farley, Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee.

A Theology of Preaching and Dialectic Aaron P. Edwards, 2018-07-12 How does the preacher know what God might say now based upon the many things God said then? Preachers and theologians throughout Christian history have grappled with Scripture's diverse emphases alongside the urgent task of declaring the authoritative Word of God in the contemporary pulpit. Aaron Edwards offers a new way of engaging with this problem by exploring the theological relationship between biblical dialectics and heraldic proclamation. Edwards highlights the theological necessity of dialectical variety without forfeiting assertiveness in the prophetic moment of preaching. A vast array of key voices from the theological tradition are drawn upon, including Augustine, Aquinas, Eckhart, Luther, Calvin, Hegel, Kierkegaard, Chesterton, Barth, Bultmann, Tillich, Ebeling, and others to navigate the connection between Scriptural unity, clarity, and paradoxical plurivocality, leading to a nuanced account of dialectic. Applying this to the homiletically neglected concept of heraldic confidence in preaching, Edwards examines the theological possibility of preaching in light of dialectical complexity via its prophetic dimension. He shows how the uniquely revelatory relationship of Word and Spirit enables Scriptural illumination, prophetic discernment, and dialectical decisiveness in the momentary encounter which undergirds all Christian proclamation.

Preaching Promise withing the Paradoxes of Life Len Hansen, 2019-01-01 Paradoxes have become characteristic of the world we live in: poverty and privilege, empire and oppression, migration and enclaves, seeking war and peace, justice and injustice, reconciliation and revenge. During the 2016 Societas Homiletica annual conference held in South Africa, these paradoxes served as a rediscovery of the calling of preachers to deliver the promise that lies within life's contradictions. A divine promise brought forth by the grace of God and the gospel of Christ embodied in and through us by the Spirit of Christ. This promise may take many forms and calls for discernment and often interrupts the status quos in surprising, shocking ways. It is a promise that interrupts in order to comfort.

Homiletical Theology David Schnasa Jacobsen, 2015-02-13 Karl Barth famously argued that all theology is sermon preparation. But what if all sermon preparation is actually theology? This book pursues a thoroughgoing theological vision for the practice of preaching as a way of doing theology. The idea is not just that homiletics is the realm of theological application. That would leave preaching in the position of simply implementing a theology already arrived at. Instead, the vision in these pages is of a form of theology that begins with preaching itself: its practice, its theories, and its contexts. Homiletical theology is thus a unique way of doing theology, even a constructive theological task in its own right. Homiletician David Schnasa Jacobsen has assembled several of the leading lights of contemporary homiletics to help to see its task ever more deeply, as theological yet in profoundly diverse ways. Along the way, readers will not only discover how homileticians do theology homiletically but will deepen the way in which they understand their own preaching as a theological task Contributors include Ronald J Allen Professor of Preaching and Gospels and Letters at Christian Theological Seminary John S McClure Charles G Finney Professor of Preaching and Worship at Vanderbilt Divinity School Alyce M McKenzie George W and Nell Ayers Le Van Professor of Preaching and Worship at Perkins School of Theology Southern Methodist University Michael Pasquarello III Granger E and Anna A Fisher Professor of Preaching at Asbury Theological Seminary Luke A Powery Dean of the Chapel and Associate Professor of the Practice of Homiletics at Duke University Teresa Stricklen Eisenlohr Ph D Associate for Worship Office of Theology and Worship at the Presbyterian Church U S A Hear Her Voice Christine Redwood,2024-08-01 How does our gender impact our preaching Can women express anger in a sermon Why use a first person narrative sermon structure After preaching for several years Christine Redwood realized both her preaching role models and her theology had come predominantly from men so she spent the next six years researching feminist scholars and their readings of stories from the book of Judges In this accessible book she shares what she has learnt including sample sermons and exercises for preachers wanting to grow in their craft This is essential reading for preachers wanting to amplify marginal voices Ways of the Word Sally A. Brown,Luke A. Powery,2016-05-19 Preaching and the discipline of preaching is at a crossroads The changing realities of church and theological education the diversity of our classrooms and our increasingly complex community contexts leave us in search of tools to help train a rising generation of preachers for a future whose contours are far from clear The questions are immense How to support preachers in contexts that are diverse religiously culturally and ethnically both inside and outside the church How to help students take varied contexts seriously as they are formed as leaders In Ways of the Word a dynamic team of master preachers brings much needed help Different in race gender age and tradition both Sally A Brown and Luke A Powery speak with one voice their belief that preaching is Spirit empowered event an embodied vocalized actively received here and now witness to the ongoing work of God in the world They aspire to help students and preachers alike to reflect on a journey of learning by doing They aim to help preachers to become more attuned to the Spirit more adept in preaching s component skills and more self aware about all that is at stake in proclaiming the redemptive work of God in specific contexts Graceful Speech Lucy Lind Hogan,2006-01-01 In this introductory text Lucy Lind Hogan helps the reader understand the theological task of becoming a preacher the craft of writing the sermon and the importance of communicating the gospel in the present world In doing so she creates a book that is more holistic than any other homiletics text currently on the market Hogan begins with a theological rationale for preaching which serves as a basis for understanding the identity of the preacher She then explores the context for preaching showing how to interpret a scriptural text design a sermon and use illustrations and examples She also discusses preaching for special occasions the use of different technologies in preaching and the importance of delivery This book includes questions for reflection Postcolonial Preaching HyeRan Kim-Cragg,2021-02-11 In Postcolonial

Preaching HyeRan Kim Cragg argues that preaching is the act of dropping the stone of the Gospel into a lake making waves to move hearts and transform the world wounded by colonial violence The ripple effect serves as a metaphor and acronym to guide to preaching that takes postcolonial concerns seriously Rehearsal Imagination Place Pattern Language and Exegesis RIPPLE Kim Cragg explains each ripple in this approach and exercise of creating and delivering sermons The author delivers fresh insights while drawing on some traditional homiletical perspectives in the service of a homiletic that takes the reality of racism migration and environmental degradation seriously Moreover Kim Cragg demonstrates the postcolonial sermon in action by including annotated homilies This book contributes to the very first wave of the application of postcolonial scholarship in preaching Given the continuing extent and influence of colonial worldviews and legacies this approach should become a staple in preaching over the next generation

Dialogical Preaching Marlene Ringgaard Lorensen, Ph.D., 2013-11-20 Dialogical Preaching Bakhtin Otherness and Homiletics explores the genre of preaching in light of theories of dialogicity and carnivalization developed by Mikhail Bakhtin The Bakhtinian approach to preaching evokes ways in which historical acts and embodied experiences are transcribed in literary genres The theories of carnivalization manifest the dynamic other oriented interaction between reflexive texts and embodied acts Experiences of otherness and difference play a central role in human communication as well as in theological descriptions of the relationship between God and humans One of the central aims of this book is to explore ways in which others different from the designated preacher influence contemporary preaching practices and in that sense can be seen as co authors As material for this investigation the book provides analyses of four theologians who have contributed significantly to contemporary homiletical developments namely those of the American homileticians Charles Campbell John S McClure and James H Harris and the Danish Systematic Theologian Svend Bjerg The homiletical analyses lead to the thesis that the dialogical encounter between author and addressees analyzer and analyzed is one of the conditions of interpretation and communication rather than a disturbance The communication theoretical and practical theological analyses are discussed in light of Kierkegaard s Barth s and Jungel s emphasis on the qualitative difference between God and humans These concluding reflections suggest ways in which inter human otherness can function as a dynamically conjoining rather than mutually exclusive difference between God as the Wholly Other and other wise humans
