Images Out of Africa Virginia Garner, 2011-05-19 Missionaries played a fundamental role in introducing cinema into the developing world in the early twentieth century. These representatives of the Christian community diligently produced films about far flung cultures to bolster fundraising for mission efforts around the globe. By the interwar period a few husband and wife teams in Africa were making an array of films about vanishing cultures and the struggle to bring Christianity to indigenous populations. Images Out of Africa brings to light the remarkable expedition of one such team of filmmakers. In 1938 Virginia and Ray Garner working for the Africa Motion Picture Project ambitiously began making films in the Belgian Congo and French Cameroons introducing film into villages for the first time. This book features Virginia Garner's recently rediscovered diaries which highlight the challenges of making films in Africa in the 1930s and include rich descriptions of cross cultural interactions and micro negotiations with chiefs, headmen and villagers. A Rational Illustration of the Book of

After a devastating diagnosis of an autoimmune disease ankylosing spondylitis just two weeks after the birth of her fourth child Roxanne Harris refused to submit to life in a wheelchair and began the fight of her life to create beauty from the ashes of disease, broken relationships and the crippling of her body. In Audaciously Alive she shares her pain, the many trials she faced and her most audacious moments of standing firm and not giving up. She highlights keys to living well and gives insight and wisdom so that you can better see the traps and speed bumps that could derail you in your own path to recovery. Packed with practical tools Roxanne will help you turn the freight train of your health and life around and get back on track physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually. You no longer have to live in panic, confusion or fear after a diagnosis. Instead you can choose to be audacious and live on purpose every day.
