Tinkering toward Utopia David B. TYACK,Larry Cuban,David B Tyack,2009-06-30 For over a century Americans have translated their cultural anxieties and hopes into dramatic demands for educational reform Although policy talk has sounded a millennial tone the actual reforms have been gradual and incremental Tinkering toward Utopia documents the dynamic tension between Americans faith in education as a panacea and the moderate pace of change in educational practices In this book David Tyack and Larry Cuban explore some basic questions about the nature of educational reform Why have Americans come to believe that schooling has regressed Have educational reforms occurred in cycles and if so why Why has it been so difficult to change the basic institutional patterns of schooling What actually happened when reformers tried to reinvent schooling Tyack and Cuban argue that the ahistorical nature of most current reform proposals magnifies defects and understates the difficulty of changing the system Policy talk has alternated between lamentation and overconfidence The authors suggest that reformers today need to focus on ways to help teachers improve instruction from the inside out instead of decreeing change by remote control and that reformers must also keep in mind the democratic purposes that guide public education

The Art of Classic Planning Nir Haim Buras,2020-01-28 An accomplished architect and urbanist goes back to the roots of what makes cities attractive and livable demonstrating how we can restore function and beauty to our urban spaces for the long term Nearly everything we treasure in the world s most beautiful cities was built over a century ago Cities like Prague Paris and Lisbon draw millions of visitors from around the world because of their exquisite architecture walkable neighborhoods and human scale Yet a great deal of the knowledge and practice behind successful city planning has been abandoned over the last hundred years not because of traffic population growth or other practical hurdles but because of ill considered theories emerging from Modernism and reactions to it The errors of urban design over the last century are too great not to question The solutions being offered today sustainability walkability smart and green technologies hint at what has been lost and what may be regained but they remain piecemeal and superficial In The Art of Classic Planning architect and planner Nir Haim Buras documents and extends the time tested and holistic practices that held sway before the reign of Modernism With hundreds of full color illustrations and photographs that will captivate architects planners administrators and developers The Art of Classic Planning restores and revitalizes the foundations of urban planning Inspired by venerable cities like Kyoto Vienna and Venice and by the great successes of L'Enfant's Washington Haussmann's Paris and Burnham's Chicago Buras combines theory and a host of examples to arrive at clear guidelines for best practices in classic planning for today's world The Art of Classic Planning celebrates the enduring principles of urban design and invites us to return to building beautiful cities

Utopia Saint Thomas More,Sir Thomas More (Saint),1908 A Place for Utopia Smriti Srinivas,2015-11-02 Exploring several utopian imaginaries and practices A Place for Utopia ties different times together from the early twentieth century to the present the biographical and the anthropological the cultural and the conjunctural South Asia Europe and North America It charts the valency of utopia for understanding designs for alternative occluded vernacular or emergent urbanisms in the last hundred years Central to the designs for utopia in this book are the themes of gardens children spiritual topographies death and hope From the vitalist urban plans of the Scottish polymath Patrick Geddes in India to the Theosophical Society in Madras and the ways in which it provided a context for a novel South Indian garden design from the visual textual and ritual designs of Californian Vedanta from the 1930s to the present to the spatial transformations associated with post 1990s highways and rapid transit systems in Bangalore that are shaping an emerging Indian New Age of religious and somatic self styling Srinivas tells the story of contrapuntal histories the contiguity of lives and resonances between utopian worlds that are generative of designs for cultural alternatives and futures Utopia Sir Thomas More (Saint),1913 British Books ,1898 Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1898
