Research in Global Citizenship Education Jason Harshman, Tami Augustine, Merry M. Merryfield, 2015-06-01 Globalization is changing what citizens need to know and be able to do by interrupting the assumption that the actions of citizens only take place within national borders If our neighborhoods and nations are affecting and being affected by the world then our political consciousness must be worldminded The outcomes of globalization have led educators to rethink what students need to learn and be able to do as citizens in a globally connected world This volume focuses on research that examines how K 12 teachers and students are currently addressing the challenge of becoming citizens in a globally interconnected world Although there is an extensive body of literature on citizenship education within national contexts and a growing literature on global education this volume offers research on the work educators are doing across multiple countries to bring the two fields together to develop global citizens Global Citizenship Education Abdeljalil Akkari, Kathrine Maleq, 2020-08-18 This open access book takes a critical and international perspective to the mainstreaming of the Global Citizenship Concept and analyses the key issues regarding global citizenship education across the world In that respect it addresses a pressing need to provide further conceptual input and to open global citizenship agendas to diversity and indigeneity Social and political changes brought by globalisation migration and technological advances of the 21st century have generated a rise in the popularity of the utopian and philosophical idea of global citizenship In response to the challenges of today s globalised and interconnected world such as inequality human rights violations and poverty global citizenship education has been invoked as a means of preparing youth for an inclusive and sustainable world In recent years the development of global citizenship education and the building of students global citizenship competencies have become a focal point in global agendas for education international educational assessments and international organisations However the concept of global citizenship education still remains highly contested and subject to multiple interpretations and its operationalisation in national educational policies proves to be challenging This volume aims to contribute to the debate question the relevancy of global citizenship education s policy objectives and to enhance understanding of local perspectives ideologies conceptions and issues related to citizenship education on a local national and global level To this end the book provides a comprehensive and geographically based overview of the challenges citizenship education faces in a rapidly changing global world through the lens of diversity and inclusiveness Global Citizenship Education Eva Aboagye, S. Nombuso Dlamini, 2021-03-05 Drawing on contemporary global events this book highlights how global citizenship education can be used to critically educate about the complexity and repressive nature of global events and our collective role in creating a just world Education for Sustainability and Global Citizenship Namrata Sharma, 2025-02-20 How do we address teaching for sustainability and global citizenship for social ecological justice based on alternative paradigms This book addresses the implications of the environmental crisis on formal non formal and informal education from a human rights position The author introduces a pedagogical approach called value creating global citizenship education from a study of selected Asian perspectives building on the UN sustainable development goals and beyond The key focus is to develop resilience and hope through engaged relationships between learners and their environments Examples are drawn from Indigenous knowledge diverse ecological worldviews and practices including the Earth Charter the Soka Amazon Institute and the United Nations Harmony with Nature Knowledge Network that promotes Earth Jurisprudence The book offers practical solutions for planetary citizenship for educators and policymakers including teaching and curriculum guidelines that can be used to integrate intercultural perspectives and develop a global outlook

Global Citizenship Education and the Crises of Multiculturalism Massimiliano Tarozzi, Carlos Alberto Torres, 2016-08-11

The notion of global citizenship education GCE has emerged in the international education discourse in the context of the United Nations Education First Initiative that cites developing global citizens as one of its goals In this book the authors argue that GCE offers a new educational perspective for making sense of the existing dilemmas of multiculturalism and national citizenship deficits in diverse societies taking into account equality human rights and social justice The authors explore how teaching and research may be implemented relating to the notion of global citizenship and discuss the intersections between the framework of GCE and multiculturalism They address the three main topics which affect education in multicultural societies and in a globalized world and which represent unsolved dilemmas the issue of diversity in relation to creating citizens the issue of equality and social justice in democratic societies and the tension between the global and the local in a globalized world Through a comparative study of the two prevailing approaches intercultural education within the European Union and multicultural education in the United States the authors seek what can be learned from each model

Global Citizenship Education and the Crises of Multiculturalism offers not only a unifying theoretical framework but also a set of policy recommendations aiming to link the two approaches Global Citizenship Education: A Critical Introduction to Key Concepts and Debates Edda Sant,Ian Davies,Karen Pashby,Lynette Shultz,2018-02-22 Global Citizenship Education explores key ideas and issues within local national and global dimensions Including examples and case studies from across the world the authors draw on ideas experiences and histories within and beyond the West to contribute to multifaceted perspectives on global citizenship education In concise chapters the authors set out the key concepts and debates within the field Global citizenship education is contextualized within key educational frameworks including citizenship education global education development education and peace education Edda Sant Ian Davies Karen Pashby and Lynette Shultz explore the different ways in which global citizenship can be taught learned and assessed in formal and informal contexts Including examples from a wide range of education institutions chapters provide overviews of policy making and international practices borne out of different approaches to global citizenship education With each chapter including a summary of key issues an annotated list of key resources an exercise for students and a further reading list Global Citizenship Education will aid understanding of this complex and debated area of study Decolonizing Global Citizenship Education Ali A Abdi,Lynette Shultz,Thashika Pillay,2015-12-01 The ideas for this reader came out of a conference organized through the Centre for Global Citizenship Education and Research CGCER at the University of Alberta in 2013 With the high expansion of global citizenship education scholarship in the past 15 or so years and with most of this scholarship produced in the west and mostly focused on the citizenship lives of people in the so called developing world or selectively attempting to explain the contexts of marginalized populations in the west the need for multidirectional and decolonizing knowledge and research perspectives should be clear Indeed the discursive as well as the practical constructions of current global citizenship education research cannot fulfill the general promise of learning and teaching programs as social development platforms unless the voices of all concerned are heard and validated With these realities this reader is topically comprehensive and timely and should constitute an important intervention in our efforts to create and sustain more inclusive and liberating platforms of knowledge and learning This collection of cutting edge theoretical contributions examines citizenship and neo liberal globalization and their impacts on the nexus of the local and global learning production of knowledge and movements of people and their rights Case studies in the collection also provide in depth analysis of lived experiences that challenge the constructed borders which derive from colonial and imperial re structuring of the contemporary world and nation states The contributors articulate agency in terms of both resistance and proactive engagement toward the construction of an alternative world which acknowledges equality justice and common humanity of all in symbiosis with the social and natural environment It is a valuable reader for students scholars practitioners and activists interested in the empowering possibilities of decolonized global citizenship education N Dr
