Non Governmental Public Action And Social Justice:

Global Matters for Non-Governmental Public Action J. Howell, 2012-09-24 Jude Howell brings together eight in depth studies of the politics of global non governmental public action Covering detailed empirical research around the themes of environmentalism security children s rights and more the contributors explore the complex politics amongst non governmental public actors acting transnationally

Non-Governmental Public Action and Social Justice J. Howell, 2013-03-28 This unique collection explores the different organizational forms strategies and tactics that activists adopt The authors examine how established trades unions struggle to reform how non governmental public actors negotiate various dilemmas and the efforts of non governmental public actors to secure justice NGOs under Pressure in Partial Democracies Chris van der Borgh, 2014-08-13 Over the past decade international human rights organizations and think tanks have expressed a growing concern that the space of civil society organizations around the world is under pressure This book examines the pressures experienced by NGOs in four partial democracies Guatemala Honduras Indonesia and the Philippines

Neo-Pentecostalism Nelson Kalombo Ngoy, 2019-05-23 For centuries Pentecostalism has played a significant role in oppressively shaping the life of formerly colonized people of Africa Moreover its theologies have perpetuated neocolonial policies developed through the lens of colonial legacies rooted in la mission civilisatrice mission to civilize However since the 1980s Neo Pentecostalism is increasingly reshaping the Congolese Christendom It sanctions the theologies of a prosperity gospel rooted in an uncritical reading of the Bible and self theologizing informed by a lack of literal contextual translation effects This book argues that the prosperity gospel bankrupts its adherents in this case the vulnerable impoverished sections of Sub Saharan Africa and particularly the Postcolonial Congo and instead offers a balanced theological reflection that broadens Neo Pentecostal studies with an African voice encouraging the rewriting and rereading of the story of redemptive mission The research engages a paradigm shift within global missions and world Christianity or the history of missions as the platform to negotiate literal prophetic and contextual translation and retransmission of the biblical gospel It is critical to reclaim and reestablish a hermeneutic of mixed methodologies and construct a contextual and critical interpretation of the Bible in the Congo To avoid the African assumption of cultural baggage which affects how the Congolese interpret the Bible the interpreter has to be neutral and experience the voice of Christ in the text instead of the voice of Congolese culture they must be a prophetic voice to reconstruct the authentic meaning of the salvific story

NGOs and Political Change Patrick Kilby, 2015-08-13 The Australian Council for International Development is the peak body of Australian international development NGOs This book explores ACFID s history since its founding in 1965 drawing on current and contemporary literature as well as extensive archival material The trends and challenges in international development are seen through the lens of an NGO peak body from the heady optimism of the first Development Decade of the 1960s through the growth in government support of NGOs in the 1980s to the challenges of the 2010s The major themes of ACFID are presented human rights gender justice humanitarianism NGO codes of conduct and influencing government policy both broadly and as it relates to NGOs Each of these themes is placed in a global context and in relation to what other NGO networks are doing internationally

Knowledge Actors and Transnational Governance D. Stone, 2013-08-29 Diane Stone addresses the network alliances or partnerships of international organisations with knowledge organisations and networks Moving beyond more common studies of industrial public private partnerships she addresses how and why international organisations and global policy actors need to incorporate ideas expertise and scientific opinion into their global programmes Rather than assuming that the encouragement for evidence informed policy in global and regional institutions of governance is an indisputable public good she queries the influence of expert actors in the growing number of part private or semi public policy networks

International NGO Engagement, Advocacy, Activism Helen Yanacopulos, 2015-10-20 The world of international non governmental organisations INGOs has dramatically changed during the last two decades The author critically analyses the engagement of INGOs within the contemporary international development landscape enabling readers to further understand INGOs involvement in the politics of social change

The Routledge Handbook of Community Development Sue Kenny, Brian McGrath, Rhonda Phillips, 2017-10-18 The Routledge Handbook of Community Development explores community development theory and practice across the world The book provides perspectives about community development as an interactive relevant and sometimes contradictory way to address issues impacting the human condition It promotes better understanding of the complexities and challenges in identifying designing implementing and evaluating community development constructs applications and interventions This edited volume discusses how community development is conceptualized as an approach method or profession Themes provide the scope of the book with projects issues or perspectives presented in each of these areas This handbook provides invaluable contextualized insights on the theory and practice of community development around core themes relevant in society Each chapter explores and presents an issue perspectives project or case in the thematic areas with regional and country context included It is a must read for students and researchers working in community development planning and human geography and an essential reference for any professional engaged in community development

Social Sciences for an Other Politics Ana Cecilia

Dinerstein, 2017-01-20 This book opens up a unique intellectual space where eleven female scholar activists explore alternative forms of theorising social reality These Women on the Verge demonstrate that a new radical subject one that is plural prefigurative decolonial ethical ecological communal and democratic is in the making but is unrecognisable with old analytical tools Of central concern to the book is the resistance of some social scientists many of them critical theorists to learning about this radical subject and to interrogating the concepts methodologies and epistemologies used to grasp it Echoing the experiential critique of capitalist colonial society that is taking place at the grassroots the authors examine how to create hope decolonise critique and denaturalise society They also address the various dimensions of the social re production of life including women in development the commons and nature Finally they discuss the dynamics of prefiguration by social movements critiquing social movement theory in the process This thought provoking edited collection will appeal to students and scholars of gender studies social Marxist and Feminist theory postcolonial studies and politics

Environmentalism, Resistance and Solidarity B. Doherty, T. Doyle, 2013-10-16 Drawing from a rich mix of survey data interviews and access to internal meetings Brian Doherty and Timothy Doyle show how FoEI has developed a distinctive environmentalism which allows for the differences in context between regions and across the North South divide
