North Africa Protest Manual:

North African Politics Yahia H. Zoubir, Gregory White, 2015-09-16 In the aftermath of the turmoil that shook North Africa in late 2010 and early 2011 commentators and analysts have sought explanations to the factors that triggered the uprisings and to understand why a region seemingly characterized by relative stability for decades would suddenly erupt in convulsions. Had an underlying dynamism in the region overwhelmed what were ostensibly stable authoritarian regimes? What were the connections to events and dynamics beyond the region such as countries in the Middle East, international commodity markets and environmental factors amongst others? Why had allies abetted authoritarianism for so long and what were the implications for such alliances? North African Politics: Change and Continuity brings together experts to explore these questions providing in-depth analyses of important developments in the region which build upon and complement the 2008 companion volume North Africa: Region and the Limits of Transformation. This 21 chapter volume is a key contribution that responds to the need in the Anglo American sphere for sustained critical studies on North Africa and examines political, economic, security, social and military aspects of the region. Focused studies on individual countries allow detailed discussion of regional factors. The book also examines extrinsic trans-regional dynamics such as North Africa's influential interdependencies with the Levant and the Gulf, Europe, Sahelian and sub-Saharan Africa and North America. Its innovative approach provides new perspectives on North Africa extending its research scope to include Egypt and exploring China's evolving role in the region. Providing an important contribution in the assessment of the ever-shifting political and social tectonics within and beyond North Africa, North African Politics is an essential resource for students, scholars and policy makers in Middle Eastern and North African Studies and beyond.

Cost of Protesting Drafts in Northern Africa and Egypt [!], 1923 Protests and Generations: Legacies and Emergences in the Middle East, North Africa and the Mediterranean, 2017-04-18 The aim of Protests and Generations is to problematize the relations between generations and protests in the Middle East, North Africa and the Mediterranean. Most of the work on recent protests insists on the newness of their manifestation but leaves unexplored the various links that exist between them and what preceded them. Mark Muhannad Ayyash and Ratiba Hadj Moussa, Eds, argue that their articulation relies at once on historical ties and their rejection. It is precisely this tension that the chapters of the book address in specifically documenting several case studies that highlight the generating processes by which generations and protests are connected. What the production and use of generation brings to scholarly understanding of the protests and the ability to articulate them is one of the major questions this collection addresses. Contributors are Mark Muhannad Ayyash, Lorenzo Cini, Ric Gobe, Ratiba Hadj Moussa, Andrea Hajek, Chaymaa Hassabo, Gal Levy, Ilana Kaufman, Sunaina Maira, Mohammad Massala, Matthieu Rey, G kb r Sarp, Tanyildiz and Stephen Luis Vilaseca. Protests and Generations is now available in paperback for individual customers.

Only Muslim Naomi Davidson,2012-08-15 The French state has long had a troubled relationship with its diverse Muslim populations In Only Muslim Naomi Davidson traces this turbulence to the 1920s and 1930s when North Africans first immigrated to French cities in significant numbers Drawing on police reports architectural blueprints posters propaganda films and documentation from metropolitan and colonial officials as well as anticolonial nationalists she reveals the ways in which French politicians and social scientists created a distinctly French vision of Islam that would inform public policy and political attitudes toward Muslims for the rest of the century Islam fran ais French Muslims were cast into a permanent otherness that functioned in the same way as racial difference This notion that one was only and forever Muslim was attributed to all immigrants from North Africa though in time Muslim came to function as a synonym for Algerian despite the diversity of the North and West African population Davidson grounds her narrative in the history of the Mosquée de Paris which was inaugurated in 1926 and epitomized the concept of Islam français Built in official gratitude to the tens of thousands of Muslim subjects of France who fought and were killed in World War I the site also provided the state with a means to regulate Muslim life throughout the metropole beginning during the interwar period Later chapters turn to the consequences of the state's essentialized view of Muslims in the Vichy years and during the Algerian War Davidson concludes with current debates over plans to build a Muslim cultural institute in the middle of a Parisian immigrant neighborhood showing how Islam remains today a marker of an unassimilable difference The Investor's Monthly Manual, 1883
