Northern Man The Victor:

Man for All Oceans Stan Grayson, 2017-05-16 In June 1898 three years and two months after departing Boston in his aged oyster sloop Spray Captain Joshua Slocum made land fall in New England and became the first person ever to sail alone around the world The voyage capped a lifetime of adventure for the indomitable Slocum who had advanced from seaman to captain during the challenging final years of commercial sail surviving hurricanes mutinies shipwreck and the death at sea of his beloved first wife Virginia Sailing Alone Around the World Slocum's book about his circumnavigation is a seafaring classic unmatched for adventure and literary verve and has never been out of print since its publication in 1900 Yet despite several biographies over the decades Slocum the man has remained unknowable to his legions of admirers the facts of his life and career as elusive as a ship on a fogbound sea Here is the real story of Slocum's Nova Scotia childhood his seafaring career and how he became an American citizen Grayson gives ample evidence of Slocum's uncanny genius as a navigator while also noting the occasional role that good luck played in his voyages including his odyssey from Brazil to the United States in the self designed and built 35 foot Liberdade And Grayson brings a sailor's perspective to Slocum's solo circumnavigation and mysterious disappearance at sea A fascinating appendix compares Sailing Alone Around the World with Thoreau's Walden and shows that Slocum's simple lifestyle and self sufficiency prefigured today's emphases on the environment and living responsibly Previously unpublished photographs bring Slocum's world to life and detailed maps trace the adventures of a sailor who knew the world like the back of his hand This biography reads like an adventure narrative and will serve as the standard work on Joshua Slocum for years to come

The Romance of Reunion Nina Silber, 2000-11-09 The reconciliation of North and South following the Civil War depended as much on cultural imagination as on the politics of Reconstruction Drawing on a wide range of sources Nina Silber documents the transformation from hostile sectionalism to sentimental reunion rhetoric Northern culture created a notion of reconciliation that romanticized and feminized southern society In tourist accounts novels minstrel shows and popular magazines northerners contributed to a mythic and nostalgic picture of the South that served to counter their anxieties regarding the breakdown of class and gender roles in Gilded Age America Indeed for many Yankees the ultimate symbol of the reunion process and one that served to reinforce Victorian values as well as northern hegemony was the marriage of a northern man and a southern woman Southern men also were represented as affirming traditional gender roles As northern men wrestled with their nation's increasingly global and aggressive foreign policy the military virtues extolled in Confederate legend became more admired than reviled By the 1890s concludes Silber northern whites had accepted not only a newly resplendent image of Dixie but also a sentimentalized view of postwar reunion

The Hard Way Around Geoffrey Wolff, 2010-10-19 A masterful biographer now offers a thrilling definitive portrait of one of history's most legendary icons of adventure In 1860 sixteen year old Joshua Slocum escaped a hardscrabble childhood in Nova Scotia by signing on as an ordinary seaman to a merchant ship bound for Dublin Despite having only a third grade education Slocum rose through the nautical ranks at a mercurial pace just a decade later he was commander of his own ship His subsequent journeys took him nearly everywhere Liverpool China Japan Cape Horn the Dutch East Indies Manila Hong Kong Saigon Singapore San Francisco and Australia where he met and married his first wife Virginia who would sail along with him for the rest of her life bearing and raising their children at sea He commanded eight vessels and owned four enduring hurricanes shipwrecks pirate attacks cholera smallpox a mutiny and the death of his wife and three of his children Yet his ultimate adventure and crowning glory was still to come In 1895 Slocum set sail from Gloucester Massachusetts by himself in the Spray a small sloop of thirty seven feet More than three years and forty six thousand miles later he became the first man to circumnavigate the globe solo a feat that wouldn't be replicated until 1925 His account of that voyage Sailing Alone Around the World soon made him internationally famous He met President Theodore Roosevelt on several occasions and became a presence on the lecture circuit selling his sea saga books whenever and wherever he could But scandal soon followed and a decade later with his finances failing he set off alone once more and was never seen again Geoffrey Wolff captures this singular life and its flamboyant times from the Golden Age of Sail to a shockingly different new century in vivid fascinating detail

Unspeakable Peter C. Herman, 2019-09-17 Unspeakable Literature and Terrorism from the Gunpowder Plot to 9/11 explores the representation of terrorism in plays novels and films across the centuries Time and time again writers and filmmakers including William Shakespeare Joseph Conrad Henry James Gillo Pontecorvo Don DeLillo John Updike and Steven Spielberg refer to terrorist acts as beyond comprehension a deed without a name but they do not stop there Instead of creating works that respond to terrorism by providing comforting narratives reassuring audiences and readers of their moral superiority and the perfidy of the terrorists these writers and filmmakers confront the unspeakable by attempting to see the world from the terrorist's perspective and by examining the roots of terrorist violence
