Not So Fast Parenting Your Teen Through The Dangers Of Driving:

Not So Fast Tim Hollister, Pam Shadel Fischer, Deborah Hersman, 2018-03-01 Most driving literature for parents focuses on how to teach a teen to drive without explaining why teen driving is so dangerous in the first place or giving parents a plan to preempt hazards. Providing fully updated and expanded advice, this second edition of Not So Fast empowers and guides parents, guardians, and other adults who supervise teen drivers. Coauthors Tim Hollister, a father who lost his teenage son in a crash, and Pam Shadel Fischer, a nationally known traffic safety expert who is also a mother of a teen driver, prove that supervision before driving is as important to lowering crash rates as teaching teens how to turn at a busy intersection. This authoritative guide tackles hot button issues such as texting and distracted driving, parenting attitudes, conscious and unconscious, and teen impairment and fatigue, and includes a combination of topics not found in other teen driving guides, such as how brain development affects driving, evaluating the circumstances of every driving trip, and the limits of driver training programs. Current research and statistics and additions dealing with hands-free devices and drowsy driving make this new edition a valuable resource for anyone concerned about teen drivers. Proceeds from the sale of this book support the Reid Hollister Memorial Fund, which subsidizes infant and toddler education in greater Hartford, Connecticut, and worthy traffic safety causes.

Teen Legal Rights David L. Hudson Jr., 2015-03-10 The only book of its kind to examine all aspects of a young adult's legal rights at school, at work, and at home, including recent developments in teen-oriented legislation. Widespread Internet use and evolving privacy concerns compromise the legal rights of teenagers. While smart phones, social networking, and online music downloading pose new legal complications for teens and their parents, to navigate the Supreme Court has grappled with rights concerning every aspect of a young adult's life long before now. This newly updated text, written in accessible language and presented through an informal FAQ format, simplifies the laws, rights, and constitutional implications affecting young people today. In an easy-to-understand, non-intimidating style, First Amendment scholar David L. Hudson Jr. provides an authoritative analysis of the judicial system, utilizing actual court cases and legal arguments to help teens better understand their rights under the law. Additionally, the text presents recent changes and interpretations of legal areas still in debate. This third edition features an updated examination of recent topics that includes cyberbullying, sexting, social media privacy, and illegal downloads of online content.

Driving Sylvia Engdahl, 2014-12-12 For both adults and teens, driving is a privilege, not a right. In recent years, more stringent regulations have come into play regarding teen driving. Graduated licensing questions about the age at which teens should begin driving and concerns arising from technology are examined in this volume. Material is drawn from a diverse selection of primary and secondary sources, with particular emphasis on Supreme Court and other court decisions.

The Parenting Project Amy Alamar, Kristine Schlichting, 2018-11-20 In a world full of many influences, The Parenting Project shows you how, through the practice of daily conversation, to maintain influence in your child's life. Are you losing the influence game with your children? If you want to direct your child's growth then they need to get to know you In The Parenting Project parenting experts Dr Amy Alamar and Dr Kristine Schlichting show you how to talk with your children on a regular basis to gain their trust In a time when kids have many things vying for their attention you want to become the go to person the one they turn to the most for advice and comfort Sometimes it's difficult to speak with your children about serious subjects That's why The Parenting Project teaches you how to make a habit of it providing you with prompts to help start potentially difficult conversations across a broad range of subjects that apply to everyday life The authors have divided these conversations into five categories to inform your approach Heart based Uncomfortable Dangerous Character and Brave because each type requires different strategies and conversation starters The book includes story after story of how parents have built extraordinary relationships with kids through the act of talking with one another day by day With some help from Dr Alamar and Dr Schlichting it will be become easier to open up conversations with rather than at your children so that when the big questions arise your child will turn to you first
