Robertson,2009-02-01 At once a travel guide and a vision for the future this series is good news for the Episcopal Church at a time of fast and furious demographic and social change It analyzes the present plight of the church and sketches a positive way forward sprouting from the seeds of change those transformative practices already at work renewing the church What church models can help point us toward transformation What are the essential tools What will give us strength direction and purpose to the journey Each volume of the series will Explain why a changed vision is essential Give robust theological and biblical foundations Offer a guide to best practices and positive trends in churches large and small Describe the necessary tools for change Imagine how transformation will look For most Episcopalians stewardship is synonymous with pledge drives budgets and capital campaigns but the Bible is clear that God wants more than our tithes and offerings Looking to its scriptural roots in 1

Chronicles Luke Acts and the letters of Paul as well as St Francis third way Robertson offers a vision of holistic stewardship for the whole church holistic because it can't be separated from evangelism outreach scripture study and ministry to the newcomer It does not involve strong arm tactics only a willingness to risk changing existing structures and ideas in order to enrich the faith community and strengthen connections to the neighboring world Transforming Stewardship delivers both good and bad news about Episcopalians and stewardship Robertson provides essential models and spiritual practices in order to transform the church's outmoded attitudes toward stewardship and wealth into a broader context of faith Climb

Higher Scott McKenzie (Senior Vice President with Horizons Stewardship),2011 Ptoxicocracy M. C. Lohrmann,2025-05-20 The call of the church is ptoxicocracy either as a witness and practitioner or as its ideal standard bearer in the world To have a meaningful stake in the lives of the poor argues M C Lohrmann would change the ways in which governance of all types national or local municipalities denominations religious judicatories and non profit boards determines its focus Lohrmann defines ptoxicocracy derived from the Greek ptoxi the poorest of the poor as governance by the materially poor a hybrid form of representative democracy whereby only persons of the lowest economic status are eligible for elected public office This model he contends allows us to step back from the coupling of wealth and power created by myths of meritocracy and a rich ruling class to envision a system that works for the good of the whole Looking to Scripture Lohrmann follows the through line of God's blessing of the poor in both the Hebrew and Christian canons How might the kingdom of God appear if God's preferential option for the poor became the lens through which we organized our lives together
