No Crying in Baseball Erin Carlson, 2023-09-05 National Bestseller The inside story of how A League of Their Own, one of the most beloved baseball movies of all time, developed from an unheralded piece of American history into a perennial cinematic favorite. Featuring exclusive interviews and behind-the-scenes memories from the original cast and creators, No Crying in Baseball is a rollicking, revelatory deep dive into a one-of-a-kind film. Before A League of Their Own, few American girls could imagine themselves playing professional ball and doing it better than the boys. But Penny Marshall's genre outlier became an instant classic and significant aha moment for countless young women who saw that throwing like a girl was far from an insult. Part fly on the wall narrative, part immersive pop nostalgia, No Crying in Baseball is for readers who love stories about subverting gender roles as well as fans of the film who remain passionate thirty years after its release. With key anecdotes from the cast, crew and diehard fanatics, Carlson presents the definitive first-ever history of the making of the treasured film that inspired generations of Dottie Hinsons to dream bigger and aim for the sky.

The Columbia Documentary History of American Women Since 1941 Harriet Sigerman, 2003 From the Hoover vacuum cleaner to the fax machine, from the pill to reproductive rights, from Rosie the Riveter to Martha Stewart and Hillary Rodham Clinton, American women have grappled with a sometimes dizzying rate of social and economic change and continually shifting conceptions of gender. This collection of documents seeks to chronicle the exciting and tumultuous recent history of American women, beginning with the watershed event of World War II and the lasting impact of the war effort on women's social and economic opportunities. Subsequent documents speak to the ideas and changes brought about by the women's movement, the challenges to and defense of reproductive rights, the backlash against feminism in the name of family values, and new visions for women's lives in the twenty-first century.

Just Watch Us Christabelle Sethna, Steve Hewitt, 2018-03-21 From the late 1960s to the mid 1980s, in the midst of the Cold War and second-wave feminism, the RCMP security service, prompted by fears of left-wing and communist subversion, monitored and infiltrated the women's liberation movement in Canada and Quebec. Just Watch Us investigates why and how this movement was targeted, weighing carefully the presumed threat its left-wing ties presented to the Canadian government against the defiant challenge its campaign for gender equality posed to Canadian society Based on a close reading of thousands of pages of RCMP documents declassified under Canada's Access to Information Act and the corresponding Privacy Act Just Watch Us demonstrates that the security service's longstanding anti Communist focus distorted its threat assessment of feminist organizing Combining gender analysis and critical approaches to state surveillance Christabelle Sethna and Steve Hewitt consider the machinations of the RCMP including its bureaucratic evolution intelligence gathering operations and impact as well as the evolution of the women's liberation movement from its broad transnational influences to its elusive quest for unity among women across lines of ideology and identity Significantly the authors also grapple with the historiographical methodological and ethical difficulties of working with declassified security documents and sensitive information A sharp eyed inquiry into spy policies and tactics in Cold War Canada Just Watch Us speaks to the serious political implications of state surveillance for social justice activism in liberal democracies
