Thinking in Public Celucien L. Joseph, 2017-04-25 Thinking in Public provides a probing and provocative meditation on the intellectual life and legacy of Jacques Roumain As a work of intellectual history the book investigates the intersections of religious ideas secular humanism and development within the framework of Roumain s public intellectualism and cultural criticism embodied in his prolific writings The book provides a reconceptualization of Roumain s intellectual itineraries against the backdrop of two public spheres a national public sphere Haiti and a transnational public sphere the global world Second it remaps and reframes Roumain s intellectual circuits and his critical engagements within a wide range of intellectual traditions cultural and political movements and philosophical and religious systems Third the book argues that Roumain s perspective on religion social development and his critiques of religion in general and of institutionalized Christianity in particular were substantially influenced by a Marxist philosophy of history and secular humanist approach to faith and human progress Finally the book advances the idea that Roumain s concept of development is linked to the theories of democratic socialism relational anthropology distributive justice and communitarianism Ultimately this work demonstrates that Roumain believed that only through effective human solidarity and collaboration can serious social transformation and real human emancipation take place

Uniting Blacks in a Raceless Nation Miguel Arnedo-Gómez, 2016-05-12 The Cuban writer Nicol s Guill n has traditionally been considered a poet of mestizaje a term that whilst denoting racial mixture also refers to a homogenizing nationalist discourse that proclaims the harmonious nature of Cuban identity Yet many aspects of Guill n s work enhance black Cuban and Afro Cuban identities Miguel Arnedo G me z explores this paradox in Guill n s pre Cuban Revolution writings placing them alongside contemporaneous intellectual discourses that feigned adherence to the homogenizing ideology whilst upholding black interests On the basis of links with these and other 1930s Cuban discourses

Arnedo Gomez shows Guillén's work to contain a message of black unity aimed at the black middle classes. Furthermore, against a tendency to seek a single authorial consciousness, be it mulatto or based on a North American construction of blackness, Guillén's prose and poetry are also characterized as a struggle for a viable identity in a socio-culturally heterogeneous society.

Dialogues across Diasporas Marion Rohrleitner, Sarah E. Ryan, 2012-12-07

Dialogues Across Diasporas focuses on the shared historical legacies of members of the African and Latina diasporas and the cultural impact of the African diaspora in the Americas. This book seeks to emphasize connections rather than divisions among different migratory ethnic communities via a reconfiguration of borders and ethnic identities. This collection of essays has three major goals: first, to foreground shared themes and strategies in the literary productions of women of African and Latino descent; second, to highlight the importance of the arts for community activism within shared diasporic spaces; and third, to illustrate the potential of artistic and activist collaborations among women from both groups across disciplinary, political, national, and ethnic divides.

Dialogues across Diasporas is divided into three sections. The first section provides a theoretical overview of diasporic migrations, politics, and identities. It argues that diverse diasporas can unite around shared political and cultural experiences such as converting contested spaces into communities and resisting rhetorics of exclusion. The second section demonstrates the diverse ways in which migratory women and daughters of the diaspora frame their histories, lived experiences, and different forms of knowledge via poetry, short stories, academic essays, and other art forms. The third section focuses on women's activism, suggesting opportunities for collaboration among and between diverse diasporic communities.
