Noma René Redzepi, 2010-10-04 Noma is the most important cookbook of the year. The Wall Street Journal. René Redzepi has been widely credited with re-inventing Nordic cuisine. His Copenhagen restaurant Noma was recognized as the 1st best in the world by the San Pellegrino World's 50 Best Restaurant awards in April 2010 after receiving the Chef's Choice award in 2009. Redzepi operates at the cutting edge of gourmet cuisine combining an unrelenting creativity and a remarkable level of craftsmanship with an inimitable and innate knowledge of the produce of his Nordic terroir. At Noma, which Redzepi created from a derelict eighteenth-century warehouse in 2003 after previously working at both elBulli and The French Laundry, diners are served exquisite concoctions such as Newly Ploughed Potato Field or The Snowman from Jukkasjärvi, all painstakingly constructed to express their amazing array of Nordic ingredients. His search for ingredients involves foraging amongst local fields for wild produce, sourcing horse mussels from the Faroe Islands and the purest possible water from Greenland. Redzepi has heightened the culinary philosophy of seasonally and regionally sourced sustainable ingredients to an unprecedented level and in doing so has created an utterly delicious cuisine. At the age of 37, Redzepi is one of the most influential chefs in the world. Noma: Time and Place in Nordic Cuisine offers an exclusive insight into the food philosophy and creativity of René Redzepi. It reveals the first behind-the-scenes look at the restaurant Noma and features over 90 recipes as well as excerpts from Redzepi's diary from the period leading up to the opening of the restaurant and texts on some of the most enigmatic of Noma's suppliers. The book includes 200 new specially commissioned color photographs of the dishes, unique local ingredients and landscapes from across the Nordic region. It also includes a foreword by the artist Olafur Eliasson.

Food and Age in Europe, 1800-2000 Tenna Jensen, Caroline Nyvang, Peter Scholliers, Peter Atkins, 2019-01-16 People eat and drink very differently throughout their life. Each stage has diets with specific ingredients, preparations, palates, meanings and settings. Moreover, physicians, authorities and general observers have particular views on what and how to eat according to age. All this has changed frequently during the previous two centuries. Infant feeding has for a long time attracted historical attention, but interest in the diets of youngsters, adults of various ages and elderly people seems to have dissolved into more general food historiography. This volume puts age on the agenda of food history by focusing on the very diverse diets throughout the lifecycle.
