The Northeast Question Pradip Phanjoubam, 2015-12-14 This book explores the idea psychology and political geography of Northeast India as forged by two interrelated but autonomous meta narratives First the politics of conflict inherent in and therefore predetermined by physical geography and second the larger geopolitics that was unfolding during the colonial period Unravelling the history behind the turmoil engulfing Northeast India the study contends that certain geographies most pertinently fertile river valleys and surrounding mountains which feed the rivers are integral to nature and any effort to disrupt this cohesion will result in conflict It comprehensively traces the geopolitics of the region since colonial era in particular the Great Game the politics that went into the making of the McMahon Line the Radcliffe Line and the Pemberton Line the region's relations with its international neighbours China Bhutan Myanmar Bangladesh and Nepal as well as the issue of many formerly non state bearing populations awakening to the reality of the modern state Lucid and analytical this book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of Northeast India modern Indian history international relations defence and strategic studies and political science Crossing the Frontiers of Conflict in the North East and Jammu and Kashmir V. S. Bhalla, 2019-08-06 The art of successful negotiations over protracted conflicts presupposes a political commitment to peace and a willingness to compromise which are sorely lacking in the current disorderly world Part of the blame for this lies in weak and ineffective national and global leadership This book's sharp focus on the role of leadership at different levels national government rebel and Western regional government mediators as well as that of the UN and non governmental players in settling intra state disputes is a unique feature which sets it apart from others Much of the existing literature does not adequately discuss the role of the above actors in developing countries Asia's Trouble Spots is a serious attempt to fill this gap The seven country studies in Asia Myanmar Indonesia Philippines Thailand Sri Lanka India and China discuss inter alia how peace negotiations between national political and rebel leaders have unfolded The role of state sponsored cross border terrorists and non state spoilers such as Al Qaeda and ISIS is addressed in the context of geopolitical rivalry among regional and global powers A S Bhalla challenges the view that Western leaders can act as impartial mediators in intra state and inter state disputes With few exceptions their record has been dismal at best Their failure in conflict resolution arises from a loss of moral authority and credibility which follows the gradual erosion over the years of such liberal values as the rule of law and respect for democracy and human rights Commercial and strategic self interests have also tended to undermine peacebuilding efforts Making of India's Northeast Dilip Gogoi,2019-09-23 This book examines India s Northeast borderland strategically positioned at the confluence of South Asia East and Southeast Asia from the perspective of international relations The volume interrogates the geopolitics of region making in both colonial and postcolonial times and traces the transformation of Northeast India from a British strategic frontier into a securitised borderland It situates the region in transnational interactions both in conflict and cooperation with its immediate neighbouring regions of China Bangladesh and Myanmar especially in the context of India s Look East Act East policy The volume paves the way for a new region state framework borne out of the constructivist worldview and offers answers to many conundrums centring border studies It further delineates approaches to overcoming the present geopolitical and territorial challenges of India s Northeast with a critical thrust on regional policymaking The volume will be of interest to students and researchers in the disciplines of social sciences and humanities in India as well as South and Southeast Asia It will be especially useful to those in politics and international relations strategic studies international political economy foreign policy development studies and regional development besides foreign policy makers and diplomats development practitioners economists and policy analysts China`s Diplomacy over the Northeast Question Ideologies, Thoughts and Values, 1858 - 1919 Xichao Yu,2024 This book explores the formation of modern Chinese diplomacy by examining how classical Chinese philosophy influenced diplomatic responses to foreign encroachments in Northeast China or Manchuria during the historical period from the signing of the Treaty of Aigun in 1858 to China s participation in the Paris Peace Conference in 1919 Drawing primarily on Qing dynasty and Beiyang government diplomatic archives and classical Chinese historiography it highlights the role of Confucian based principles in shaping the diplomatic thinking of the Qing dynasty and Beiyang governments Through a top down state centric analysis the research suggests that these traditional Chinese cultural values provided a distinct intellectual and theoretical framework for modern Chinese leaders guiding diplomatic decisions amid foreign incursions and modernisation pressures It underscores the lasting impact of China s traditional cultural knowledge on its diplomatic evolution particularly in resolving the so called Northeast Question

Frontiers of Violence in North-East Africa Richard J. Reid, 2011-03-24 Northeast Africa has one of the richest histories in the world and yet also one of the most violent Richard Reid offers an historical analysis of violent conflict in northeast Africa through the nineteenth and twentieth centuries incorporating the Ethiopian and Eritrean highlands and their escarpment and lowland peripheries stretching between the modern Eritrean Red Sea coast and the southern and eastern borderlands of present day Ethiopia Sudanese and Somali frontiers are also examined insofar as they can be related to ethnic political and religious conflict and the violent state and empire building processes which have defined the region since c 1800 Reid argues that this modern warfare is not solely the product of modern political failure but rather has its roots in a network of frontier zones which are both violent and creative Such borderlands have given rise to markedly militarised political cultures which are rooted in the violence of the nineteenth century and which in recent decades are manifest in authoritarian systems of government Reid thus traces the history of Amhara and Tigrayan imperialisms to the nationalist and ethnic revolutions which represented the march of volatile borderlands on the hegemonic centre He suggests a new interpretation of Ethiopian and Eritrean history arguing that the key to understanding the region s turbulent present lies in an appreciation of the role of the armed and politically fertile frontier in its deeper past
