Octane Uk 2014 05 Bak:

The Unitary EU Patent System Justine Pila, Christopher Wadlow, 2015-03-26 The purpose of this book is to explore the key substantive methodological and institutional issues raised by the proposed unitary EU patent system contained in EU Regulations 1257/2012 and 1260/2012 and the Unified Patent Court Agreement 2013. The originality of this work lies in its individual contributions and uniquely broad approach taking six different historical constitutional international competition institutional and forward looking perspectives on the proposed patent system. This means that the book offers a multi-authored and all round legal appraisal of the proposed unitary system from experts in patent law, EU constitutional law, private international law and competition law as well as leading figures from the worlds of legal practice, the bench and the European Patent Office. The unitary patent system raises issues of foundational importance in the fields of patent and intellectual property law, EU law and legal harmonization which it is the purpose of the book to engage with. This is a work which will enjoy wide and enduring interest among academics, policy makers and decision makers, practitioners working in patent law, intellectual property law, legal harmonization and EU law. The Resident 2015 (Cayman Islands) Acorn Publishing Co.
