Diamond Heist - The Incredible True Story of the Hatton Garden Diamond Geezers Gordon Bowers, 2016-06-23 Over the Easter weekend in 2015 an audacious gang of criminals robbed a safe depository in London s Hatton Garden the centre of the UK s diamond trade Shortly before electrical cables under nearby Kingsway had caught on fire disrupting the emergency services in the area Coincidence Alarms at Hatton Garden Safe Deposit Ltd went off but the police ignored them The burglars were caught on CCTV taking jewellery worth up to 200 million They had used specialist equipment taking days to tunnel through the walls of the vault Within a month nine suspects had been arrested and valuables seized from their homes They were aged between forty three and seventy six including a father and son The question was were they the same gang that had made a similar daring raid in Hatton Garden safe netting 1 5 million over the Christmas holiday in 2004 The culprits then were never caught In 1986 a similar heist had taken place in Los Angeles where a gang drilled a 100 foot tunnel from a storm drain into the vaults of the First Interstate Bank in West Hollywood It inspired the novel The Black Echo Author Michael Connelly believes his book might have inspired the Hatton Garden heists and has a grudging respect for the criminals There is no violence and they sweated for the money And there is a certain class envy he said We don t feel too sorry for people who keep fortunes hidden away in safety deposit boxes Part of us hopes the gang members are now lying on a beach somewhere However what the Hatton Garden heist so victimless There have been suggestions that the safety deposit raid was linked to the murder of John Goldfinger Palmer a suspect in the 1983 Brink s Mat bullion robbery who was gunned down in Essex in July The question remains was Palmer killed for tipping off police about possible suspects Bulletin -
