Olaf the Glorious Robert Leighton, 1907 Olaf the Glorious Robert Leighton, 1909 Olaf the Glorious Leighton Robert, 2016-06-21 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy Olaf the Glorious Robert Leighton, 2010-03 The hero in this volume is not an imaginary one he was a real flesh and blood man who reigned as King of Norway just over a thousand years ago The main facts of his adventurous career are his boyhood of slavery in Estonia his life at the court of King Valdemar his wanderings as a Viking the many battles he fought his conversion to Christianity in England and his ultimate return to his native land are set forth in the various Icelandic sagas dealing with the period in which he lived The author made free use of these old time records and added only such probable incidents as were necessary to give a continuous thread of interest to the narrative For the convenience of readers who may wish for greater exactness it may be as well to state here that Olaf Triggvison was born A D 963 that he started on his wanderings as a Viking in the year A D 981 that the sea fight between the Vikings of Jomsburg and the Norwegians took place in A D 986 and the battle of Maldon in the year A D 991 Olaf reigned only five years as King of Norway being crowned in A D 995 and ending his reign with his death in the glorious defeat at Svold in the year A D 1000 33% of the net profit from this book is donated to charities Olaf the Glorious: A Story of the Viking Age Robert Leighton, 1894-01-01 It happened in the beginning of the summer that Sigurd Erikson journeyed north into Esthonia to gather the king s taxes and tribute His business in due course brought him into a certain seaport that stood upon the shores of the great Gulf of Finland He was a very handsome man tall and strong with long fair hair and clear blue eyes There were many armed servants in his following for he was a person of great consequence and was held in high honour throughout the land He rode across the marketplace and there alighted from his horse and turned his eyes towards the sea Before him stretched the rippling sunlit bay with its wooded holms A fleet of fishing boats was putting out with the flood tide and some merchant vessels lay at anchor under shelter of the green headland Nearer to the strand a long dragonship with a tall gilded prow rising high above the deck tent was moored against a bank of hewn rock that served as a wharf At sight of the array of white shields along this vessel s bulwarks his eyes brightened for he knew that she was a viking ship from his own birth land in distant Norway and he was glad Not often did it chance that he could hold speech with the bold warriors of the fiords Close by the ship there was a noisy crowd of men and boys He strode nearer to them and heard the hoarse voices of the vikings calling out in loud praise of a feat that had been performed by someone in their midst Sigurd joined the crowd and saw a boy step out upon the vessel s narrow gangplank and there standing between the ship and the shore begin to throw a knife high up into the sunny air catching it as it fell It seemed that the lad was of good station for his clothing was of finely woven cloth and there was a gold neckband to his kirtle and his long black hair was well combed and curled Thrice he threw up his glittering knife high above his head and deftly caught it again But soon thinking perhaps to excel those who had gone before him he took a second knife from his belt and juggled with them both with such skill that the shipmen watching him from under the awning swore by the hammer of Thor that the feat could never be surpassed Well done well done they shouted And the boys on the bank cried out Well done Rekoni At this the youth put fuller strength into his arms and flung the knives yet higher into the air But his ambition for the praise of the warriors was greater than his caution for in reaching forward to catch one of the weapons he lost his balance and fell headlong into the deep green water beneath And as he swam to shore the vikings laughed aloud and some who had thought of giving him a reward put back their gold into their wallets and turned away Now very close to where Sigurd Erikson was there stood two boys whose close cropped hair and dress of coarse white vadmal showed them to be slaves One of them was a tall gaunt youth with pale thin cheeks and large sad eyes He was fair of skin and by this Sigurd knew that he was not an Esthonian His companion seemed about twelve winters old sturdy and broad backed with very fair hair His neck and bare strong arms were burnt by the sun to a ruddy brown Sigurd could not see his face and might not have noticed him had not the elder lad urged him forward bidding him step upon the plank and show his skill Not I said the younger with an impatient toss of his cropped head And he thrust his thumbs into his belt and drew back Too much have I already done in bidding Rekoni try the feat Well is it for me that he is not hurt by his fall into the sea else would his father s whip be about my back Even as the matter stands my master will surely stop my food for having left his sheep to stray upon the hills
