 their popularity online video games have been met with suspicion by the popular media and academic community In particular there is a growing concern that online video game play may be associated with deficits in social functioning Due to a lack of empirical consistency the debate surrounding the potential impact of online video game play on a user's sociability remains an active one This book contributes to this debate by exploring the potential impact of online video game involvement on social competence outcomes theoretically and empirically Through empirical research Kowert examines the relationships between online video game involvement social goals and social skills and discusses the underlying mechanisms Moraine's Your Shadow Half Remains a post apocalyptic tale where eye contact causes people to spiral into a deadly violent rage ONE LOOK CAN KILL Riley has not seen a single human face in longer than she can reckon No faces no eyes Not if you want to survive But when a new neighbor moves in down the road Riley's overwhelming need for human contact makes her throw caution to the wind Somehow in this world where other people can mean a gruesome bloody death Ellis makes her feel safe As they grow closer Riley's grip on reality begins to slip and she can no longer fight her deepest desires All Riley wants to do is look A refreshingly original take on dystopian fiction Moraine's latest is as haunting as it is thought provoking
