Building Global Infrastructure Dale S. Rothman,Mohammod T. Irfan,Barry B. Hughes,Eli Margolese-Malin,Jonathan D. Moyer,2015-12-03 Building Global Infrastructure is the fourth in a series of volumes Patterns of Potential Human Progress that uses the International Futures IFs simulation model to explore prospects for human development how development appears to be unfolding globally and locally how we would like it to evolve and how better to assure that we move it in desired directions Earlier volumes addressed the reduction of global poverty the advance of global education and the improvement of global health Volume 4 sets out to tell the story of the future of global infrastructure The approach used in this book focuses on the question of whether individual societies will be able to meet future infrastructure demands Related questions include the following What is the range of realistically conceivable futures for infrastructure considering both demand and supply How are the demands for infrastructure balanced with the ability to meet these demands thereby linking the physical and financial treatment of infrastructure What are the effects of providing for infrastructure on issues such as economic productivity and health

Development Strategies and Inter-Group Violence William Ascher,Natalia Mirovitskaya,2016-01-12 Although many scholars and practitioners recognize that development and conflict are intertwined there is much less understanding of the mechanisms behind these linkages This book takes a new approach by critically examining how various development strategies provoke or help prevent intrastate violence based on cases from all developing regions

Infrastructure Planning and Finance Vicki Elmer,Adam Leigland,2013-11-07 Infrastructure Planning and Finance is a non technical guide to the engineering planning and financing of major infrastructure projects in the United States providing both step by step guidance and a broad overview of the technical political and economic challenges of creating lasting infrastructure in the 21st Century Infrastructure Planning and Finance is designed for the local practitioner or student who wants to learn the basics of how to develop an infrastructure plan a program or an individual infrastructure project A team of authors with experience in public works planning and city government explain the history and economic environment of infrastructure and capital planning addressing common tools like the comprehensive plan sustainability plans and local regulations The book guides readers through the preparation and development of comprehensive plans and infrastructure projects and through major funding mechanisms from bonds user fees and impact fees to privatization and competition The rest of the book describes the individual infrastructure systems their elements current issues and a how to do it section that covers the system and the comprehensive plan development regulations and how it can be financed Innovations such as decentralization green and blue green technologies are described as well as local policy actions to achieve a more sustainable city are also addressed Chapters include water wastewater solid waste streets transportation airports ports community facilities parks schools energy and telecommunications Attention is given to how local policies can ensure a sustainable and climate friendly infrastructure system and how planning for them can be integrated across disciplines

The Evolution of Development

Thinking William Ascher,Garry D. Brewer,G. Shabbir Cheema,John M. Heffron,2016-04-08 This landmark book offers a comprehensive analysis of how development approaches have evolved since World War II examining and also evaluating the succession of theories doctrines and practices that have been formulated and applied in the Third World and beyond Covering all developing regions the book offers an integrated approach for considering the entwined aspects of development governance economics foreign assistance civil society and the military With reference to carefully chosen case studies the authors offer distinctive explanations for why development approaches fall short and systematically relate the evolution of development thinking to current challenges identifying the strengths and weaknesses of key institutions and the clashes of institutional interests that have distorted otherwise sound doctrines and negatively affected development practice In identifying the dynamics that account for shortcomings in past development attempts and recommending a better integration of doctrines across the entire range of inter connected development fronts the book points to how development practice may be improved to better advance human dignity

Redefining Human Rights in the Struggle for Peace and Development

Terrence E. Paupp,2014-01-20 Examines the history of the struggle to advance human rights and provides a global framework of constitutional protections to implement these rights

Indo-Pacific Strategies

Brendon J. Cannon,Kei Hakata,2022-01-14 This book focuses on the Indo Pacific region s growing prominence as the world s major powers gravitate toward this space to expand their influence With dynamic shifts taking place in the globe s most strategically volatile region Indo Pacific Strategies aims at clarifying the geopolitics of the Indo Pacific expounded both as a strategic concept and nascent region thus contributing to the burgeoning policy and academic debate The book offers indispensable insights and appropriate remedies to maintain the rules based international order as threatened by China s increasingly assertive and bellicose posturing It offers up to date analyses of Covid 19 related geopolitical trends the strategies of various Indo Pacific states against the backdrop of great power competition the increasingly confrontational stance of Indo Pacific states against China and the 2020 US election results This unique book presents deep insights into the roles of Eurasia small island states the Middle East and Africa in addition to Australia India Japan and the US thereby providing much needed comparative studies It also closely investigates the strategic and tactical operationalization of the Indo Pacific making it an essential read for scholars policymakers students and strategists in the field of international politics and Area Studies Excerpt from the foreword by ABE Shinz former Prime Minister of Japan I think this book is the timeliest attempt to bring together the wisdom of eleven people to present a multifaceted view of the FOIP Free and Open Indo Pacific As a reader I would like to express my gratitude to the editors and contributors for their valuable intellectual contributions See the preview function on this website to access the full text Improving Disability Laws under Nigeria's Fourth Republic Philip C. Aka, Joseph Abiodun Balogun, 2022-11-08 Persons living with disabilities PLWDs are imbued with inalienable human rights and have talents and potential that would aid in the Nigerian government's unceasing pursuit of economic development However under Nigeria's Fourth Republic since 1999 implementation of disability laws has been lethargic In Improving Disability Laws under Nigeria's Fourth Republic Ten Measured Steps into the Future Philip C Aka and Joseph Abiodun Balogun explore measures for improving the capacity of the Nigerian national government to implement regional and global treaties related to disability that are human rights centric They emphasize the need for a human rights focus and for the Nigerian government to implement laws that support the potential of PLWDs including their contributions to socioeconomic development

Asymmetric Power Relations and International Trade Law Inebu C. Agbo-Ejeh, 2024-12-31 The book offers an analysis of the contradictions between theory and practice in the trading system It contextualises the colonial legal structure and its impact on the peripheral countries and their participation and gain in the multilateral trading system The book's core argument effectively situates Economic Partnership Agreements in the systemic asymmetry which characterises the relationship between developed and developing countries in global trade It applies the idea of asymmetry to the relationship between the core countries the EU USA and the peripheral countries ACP in the GATT multilaterally and in the EU ACP trade relationship bilaterally The book identifies that core provisions in the WTO regime such as the special and differential treatment as well as GATT Article XXIV have not lived up to expectations Underscoring the asymmetrical participation and dominant role of former colonial powers the book demonstrates how although trade is generally considered a catalyst for economic growth developed countries have safeguarded their domestic markets while exerting pressure on developing countries to liberalise and compete The European Union has taken measures to address the development concerns of African Caribbean and Pacific countries through the Lom Conventions and Cotonou Agreement however these relationships still retain and reinforce colonial paternalism evidenced by recent trade agreements An alternative possibility multipolarity holds promise for African countries especially intra African trade and critical engagement with China The book is an invaluable resource for scholars postgraduate students government officials and policymakers as it offers a comprehensive understanding of the complexities of trade negotiations and agreements
