Photography As Activism Photography As Activism:

Photography as Activism Michelle Bogre, 2012-11-12 You want to look through the lens of your camera and change the world You want to capture powerful moments in one click that will impact the minds of other people Photographic images are one of the most popular tools used to advocate for social and environmental awareness This can be as close to home as drug use prostitution or pollution or as far away as famine war and the plight of refugees and migrant workers One well known example of an activist photographer would be landscape photographer Ansel Adams who trudged to Washington with stunning images of the American west to advocate protecting these areas His images and testimony were instrumental in creating the National Park System and garnering specific protection for Yellowstone National Park More recently Robert Glenn Ketchum s images of Alaska s Arctic National Wildlife Refuge raised awareness of why this area should be protected Nigel Barker s seal photographs advocates against seal clubbing What is your cause and how can you use your camera to make the world a better place This book provides a comprehensive theory of and history of photography as activism It also includes interviews with contemporary photographers It is a call to action for young photographers to become activists a primer of sorts with advice for how to work with NGOs and non profits how to work safely in conflict zones and with suggestions for distribution on websites blogs and interactive agencies Photography as Activism Michelle Bogre, 2024-11-25 This fully revised and updated second edition of Photography as Activism is both a study of activist photography and a call to action It offers students and documentary photographers insights into the theory history philosophy and practice of photography as activism The book is lavishly illustrated with 85 key historical and contemporary images Chapters have been revised to include contemporary ideas about representation gaze agency and decolonizing the camera as well as an expanded history that includes work from the global South and the civil rights movements in the US A new fourth chapter focuses on activist practices that go beyond traditional reportage It features 19 new interviews and updates on the original interviews Photographers talk about their practices the challenges they face in the twenty first century advice on working with NGOs and non profits and how to form partnerships to expand the dissemination of their work Photography as Activism is an essential text for courses on documentary and photojournalism and those that explore art as social change more broadly but also a call to action for young photographers to pick up their cameras and advocate for change Visual Protest, Viral Images, and Virtual Participation Nicole A. Schneider, 2025-06-30 This interdisciplinary study sees press photographs of the BLM Movement in the US as agents for Black liberation Close reading both the images and theoretical considerations on Blackness photography and the often intangible articulations of racism in today s society the book focuses on the work the photographs do for the movement as they politically garner attention and create discursive places historically unsettle seemingly fixed narratives about the African American past and virtually establish room for digital activist debate Based on Azoulay s event of photography and Ranci re s politics of aesthetics it builds the theory of an attentive reading of photography and addresses the larger frameworks of photography as event in anti racist considerations In their political aesthetic and performative dimensions these photographs negotiate the current matter of Black lives in the United States and articulate ontological dimensions of Blackness as political struggle and affirmative position They become mobile and material discursive places that lift the protested debates into wider fields of consideration and visibility complicating notions of society politics and interaction Art, Activism, and Oppositionality Grant H. Kester,1998 A collection of essays from the influential American journal of film video and photography exploring ideologies and institutions of the artworld current media strategies for producing social change and topics around gender race and representation I
