The Oxford History of the Ancient Near East Karen Radner, Nadine Moeller, Daniel T. Potts, 2023 The fifth volume of the Oxford History of the Ancient Near East covers the period from the second half of the 7th century BC until the campaigns of Alexander III of Macedon 336-323 BC brought an end to the Achaemenid Dynasty and the Persian Empire Tying together periods and political history covered by previous volumes in the series this title focuses on the Persian Empire's immediate predecessor states Saite Egypt the Neo Babylonian Empire and the kingdom of Lydia among other kingdoms and tribal alliances

The Poison King Adrienne Mayor, 2011-03-27 A new account of one of Rome's most relentless but least understood foes Claiming Alexander the Great and Darius of Persia as ancestors Mithradates inherited a wealthy Black Sea kingdom at age fourteen after his mother poisoned his father He fled into exile and returned in triumph to become a ruler of superb intelligence and fierce ambition Hailed as a savior by his followers and feared as a second Hannibal by his enemies he envisioned a grand Eastern empire to rival Rome After massacring eighty thousand Roman citizens in 88 BC he seized Greece and modern day Turkey Fighting some of the most spectacular battles in ancient history he dragged Rome into a long round of wars and threatened to invade Italy itself His uncanny ability to elude capture and surge back after devastating losses unnerved the Romans while his mastery of poisons allowed him to foil assassination attempts and eliminate rivals From publisher description

To Rule the Waves Bruce Jones,2022-11-22 From a brilliant Brookings Institution expert an important The Wall Street Journal and penetrating historical and political study Nature of the critical role that oceans play in the daily struggle for global power in the bestselling tradition of Robert Kaplan s The Revenge of Geography For centuries oceans were the chessboard on which empires battled for supremacy But in the nuclear age air power and missile systems dominated our worries about security and for the United States the economy was largely driven by domestic production with trucking and railways that crisscrossed the continent serving as the primary modes of commercial transit All that has changed as nine tenths of global commerce and the bulk of energy trade is today linked to sea based flows A brightly painted forty foot steel shipping container loaded in Asia with twenty tons of goods may arrive literally anywhere else in the world how that really happens and who actually profits from it show that the struggle for power on the seas is a critical issue today Now in vivid closely observed prose Bruce D Jones conducts us on a fascinating voyage through the great modern ports and naval bases from the vast container ports of Hong Kong and Shanghai to the vital naval base of the American Seventh Fleet in Hawaii to the sophisticated security arrangements in the Port of New York Along the way the book illustrates how global commerce works that we are amidst a global naval arms race and why the oceans are so crucial to America s standing going forward As Jones reveals the three great geopolitical struggles of our time for military power for economic dominance and over our changing climate are playing out atop within and below the world s oceans The essential question he shows is this who will rule the waves and set the terms of the world to come The Ancient Greek Hero in 24 Hours Gregory Nagy,2013-07-15

The ancient Greeks concept of the hero was very different from what we understand by the term today In 24 installments based on the Harvard course Nagy has taught and refined since the 1970s The Ancient Greek Hero in 24 Hours explores civilization s roots in Classical literature a lineage that continues to challenge and inspire us Ancient Historiography on War and Empire Timothy Howe,Sabine Müller,Richard Stoneman,2016-11-30 In the ancient Greek speaking world writing about the past meant balancing the reporting of facts with shaping and guiding the political interests and behaviours of the present Ancient Historiography on War and Empire shows the ways in which the literary genre of writing history developed to guide empires through their wars Taking key events from the Achaemenid Persian Athenian Macedonian and Roman empires the 17 essays collected here analyse the way events and the accounts of those events interact Subjects include how Greek historians assign nearly divine honours to the Persian King the role of the tomb cult of Cyrus the Founder in historical narratives of conquest and empire from Herodotus to the Alexander historians warfare and financial innovation in the age of Philip II and his son Alexander the Great the murders of Philip II his last and seventh wife Kleopatra and her guardian Attalos Alexander the Great s combat use of eagle symbolism and divination Plutarch s juxtaposition of character in the Alexander Caesar pairing as a commentary on political legitimacy and military prowess and Roman Imperial historians using historical examples of good and bad rule to make meaningful challenges to current Roman authority In some cases the balance shifts more towards the literary and in others more towards the historical but what all of the essays have in common is both a critical attention to the genre and context of history writing in the ancient world and its focus on war and empire

Allegory in Iranian Cinema Michelle Langford, 2019-07-25 Iranian filmmakers have long been recognised for creating a vibrant aesthetically rich cinema whilst working under strict state censorship regulations As Michelle Langford reveals many have found indirect allegorical ways of expressing forbidden topics and issues in their films But for many allegory is much more than a foil against haphazardly applied censorship rules Drawing on a long history of allegorical expression in Persian poetry and the arts allegory has become an integral part of the poetics of Iranian cinema Allegory in Iranian Cinema explores the allegorical aesthetics of Iranian cinema explaining how it has emerged from deep cultural traditions and how it functions as a strategy for both supporting and resisting dominant ideology As well as tracing the roots of allegory in Iranian cinema before and after the 1979 revolution Langford also theorizes this cinematic mode She draws on a range of cinematic philosophical and cultural concepts developed by thinkers such as Walter Benjamin Gilles Deleuze Pier Paolo Pasolini Christian Metz and Vivian Sobchack to provide a theoretical framework for detailed analyses of films by renowned directors of the pre and post revolutionary eras including Masoud Kimiai Dariush Mehrjui Ebrahim Golestan Kamran Shirdel Majid Majidi Jafar Panahi Marziyeh Meshkini Mohsen Makhmalbaf Rakhshan Bani Etemad and Asghar Farhadi Allegory in Iranian Cinema explains how a centuries old means of expression interpretation encoding and decoding becomes in the hands of Iran s most skilled cineastes a powerful tool with which to critique and challenge social and cultural norms Biblical Terror

Jeremiah W. Cataldo, 2016-12-01 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched For biblical authors and readers law and restoration are central concepts in the Bible but they were not always so To trace out the formation of those biblical concepts as elements in defensive strategies Cataldo uses as conversational starting points theories from Zizek Foucault and Deleuze all of whom emphasize relation and difference This work argues that the more modern assumption that biblical authors wrote their texts presupposing a central importance for those concepts is backwards On the contrary law and restoration were made central only through and after the writing of the biblical texts in particular those that were concerned with protecting the community from threats to its identity as the remnant Modern Bible readers Cataldo argues must renegotiate how they understand law and restoration and come to terms with them as concepts that emerged out of more selfish concerns of a community on the margins of imperial political power

100 years of European Philosophy Since the Great War Matthew Sharpe, Rory Jeffs, Jack Reynolds, 2017-02-14 This book is a collection of specifically commissioned articles on the key continental European philosophical movements since 1914 It shows how each of these bodies of thought has been shaped by their responses to the horrors set in train by World War I and considers whether we are yet post post war The outbreak of World War I in August 1914 set in chain a series of crises and re configurations which have continued to shape the world for a century industrialized slaughter the end of colonialism and European empires the rise of the USA economic crises fascism Soviet Marxism the gulags and the Shoah Nearly all of the major movements in European thinking phenomenology psychoanalysis Hegelianism Marxism political theology critical theory and neoliberalism were forged in or shaped by attempts to come to terms with the global trauma of the World Wars This is the first book to describe the development of these movements after World War I and as such promises to be of interest to philosophers and historians of philosophy around the world
