Grace,Robert W. Klein,2009-12-01 A Brookings Institution Press and Georgia State University publication Important changes have buffeted the insurance industry over the past decade The 1999 repeal of key provisions of the Glass Steagall Act unleashed a wave of conglomeration in financial services as bank holding companies acquired insurance and securities businesses and to a much lesser degree insurance companies acquired securities firms and banks Rivalry within the sector has intensified insurance companies have developed products that compete directly with the offerings of banks and securities firms and vice versa In addition the industry has become increasingly global Against this backdrop pressure has been building for fundamental changes to the structure of insurance regulation in the United States Despite several court challenges over the years insurance continues to be regulated by the states Many insurance companies view state regulation as an increasing drag on their efficiency and competitiveness and support a federal regulatory system However powerful stakeholders including state officials state and regional insurance companies and many insurance agents oppose federal regulation As a result proposals to establish an optional federal charter OFC for insurance companies and agents remain mired in fierce debate The Future of Insurance Regulation in the United States gathers some of the country s leading experts on financial regulation to assess the case for an enhanced federal role in the insurance sector They pay particular attention to the merits of an OFC and how it might be designed They also consider the principles that should guide insurance regulatory policies regardless of the institutional framework and examine the implications of financial convergence and the internationalization of insurance markets for an optimal regulatory structure The debate over insurance regulation has only grown in complexity and intensity since the financial crisis began in the fall of 2008 This book will both inform and help to shape those critical discussions Contributors John A Cooke International Financial Services London Robert Detlefsen National Association of Mutual Insurance Companies Martin F Grace Georgia State University Robert W Klein Georgia State University Robert E Litan Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation and Brookings Institution Phil O Connor PROactive Strategies Hal S Scott Harvard Law School Harold D Skipper Georgia State University Peter J Wallison American Enterprise Institute Commercial and Financial Chronicle Bankers Gazette, Commercial Times, Railway Monitor and Insurance Journal ,1896 Highway Safety Literature ,1978 The Weekly Underwriter Alasco Delancey Brigham, Henry Rogers Hayden,1981-07 Statistical Reference Index ,1980 Catalog of Copyright Entries.
