Le flux et l'instant Denis Perrin, 2007 La pensée de Ludwig Wittgenstein est animée tout au long des années 1930 et 1940 par une méditation de la question du temps C'est un de ses aspects les plus mal connus Ce livre vise à restituer cette méditation dans sa force et sa singularité afin d'établir la contribution qu'elle apporte à la tradition qui s'est consacrée à cette question majeure de la philosophie Il montre d'abord comment la tentation d'accorder un privilège au présent constitue un élément essentiel du projet phénoménologique wittgensteinien de 1929 avant d'explorer le travail critique auquel Wittgenstein soumet ce projet au cours des deux décennies suivantes et qui le conduit à situer dans un certain rapport à notre langage l'origine de notre façon de penser la temporalité Une analyse originale du langage ordinaire permet ainsi de réévaluer les théories classiques du temps que proposent la phénoménologie la philosophie de la psychologie et la philosophie du langage

faudrait comprendre les relations qu'ils entretiennent entre eux
