Psychological Tight Spaces Feminist Scholars:

Handbook of Diversity in Feminist Psychology Hope Landrine, Nancy Felipe Russo, 2009-12-17 With the publication of the Handbook of Diversity in Feminist Psychology the field of feminist psychology has achieved a new depth the volume is a sophisticated and cutting edge compendium that not only describes the state of the field but also pushes its boundaries in important ways Sex Roles A Journal of Research Critical for all those who are in the field of psychology to own refer to and use No longer are diversity and gender issues considered to be on the periphery as they once were one would be remiss in not considering these factors in psychology Florence L Denmark PhD From the Foreword Author Psychology of Women FINALLY A collection of work that is built on decades if not centuries of hard work from many feminists of color and our allies This is one of the few books that delves deeply into the complex world of considering the human condition in cultural context something psychology is only relatively recently trying to do This book is a must have for anyone interested in feminism OR diversity issues It is a great example of feminist multiculturalism and both fields i e feminism and multicultural psychology should consider it an example of how to merge theoretical orientations in a way that is fitting for real people I LOVE this book Geneva Reynaga Abiko Psy D This handbook presents a multicultural approach to diversity in feminist psychology Provocative and timely the text comprehensively discusses the cutting edge of feminist discourse covering major topics such as multicultural feminist theory gender discrimination aging health and therapy violence and harassment politics and policy and much more The unique quality of this book is that each contributor brings her own cultural perspective values and concerns to her chapter Special emphasis is also given to the intersectionality of minority identities such as race ethnicity social class sexual preference and other socially constructed status differences among women Key Topics Discussed Intimate partner violence perspectives from ethnic groups in the United States Gender transgressive sexual minorities HIV AIDS among women of color and sexual minority women Psychological perspectives on older women including transitions cognitive functioning and mental health Ethnicity disordered eating and body image Methodological and statistical issues in research with diverse samples Low income women women with disabilities workers and immigrants refugees Feminist Reconstructions in Psychology Mary Gergen, 2000-10-03 Feminist Reconstructions in Psychology introduces a distinctive new mode of doing psychology This psychology is based on an increasingly popular range of ideas called social constructionism Within the book new forms of theory and methods of inquiry relating social constructionism to feminist topics are introduced Each chapter highlights different topics of special concern within gender studies especially the psychology of women The first chapter outlines the purposes of the book and positions social constructionism in relation to the more traditional feminist psychologies empiricist and feminist standpoint Given the trend toward social constructionism the author thinks the broad audience of people doing gender work will be interested in becoming familiar with this approach to the field The second and third chapters are focused on narrative methods as a means for studying gender differences in popular autobiographies The discussions center on differences in stories of achievement family love and embodiment Quotations from well known personalities such as Donald Trump and Martina Navratilova enrich the text The fourth fifth and sixth chapters involve issues of menopause with a focus group methodology a historical look at the male gaze as it is poised on the Naked Maja painting by Goya and how relationships function within imaginal conversations The two final chapters in the book are exemplars of a recent innovation in the field called performative psychology One monologue is about aging in contemporary society and the other is a feminist critique of aspects of postmodernism itself The book draws from the central tenets of postmodern inquiry as played out in the positive framework of social constructionism Emphasized are reflexivity the social basis of reality making the breakdown of traditional narrative forms the loss of objectivity as a scientific standard and the possibilities for new forms of doing research In this respect the book is unique and serves to provide a point of view on an intriguing movement that is gaining momentum across the social sciences and humanities It is hoped that this book might serve as a catalyst for further innovative work in psychology This text encourages such moves by its own irreverence for traditions and its overt efforts to break down resistances to creativity in the field
