Psychopathology Foundations For A Contemporary Understanding:

Psychopathology James E. Maddux, Barbara A. Winstead, 2024-08 Psychopathology Foundations for a Contemporary Understanding is a comprehensive textbook about the etiology and treatment of the most important psychological disorders. The chapters are written by leading experts in the field of psychopathology who provide up to date information on theory, research, and clinical practice. The book is unique in its strong emphasis on critical thinking about psychopathology as represented by chapters on topics such as culture, race, gender, class, clinical judgment, decision making, and alternatives to traditional categorical approaches to understanding psychopathology. The contributors have incorporated information from the latest DSM 5 TR update as well as information from the World Health Organization's International Classification of Diseases. This sixth edition has been updated throughout and includes the most up to date research on each topic. This book is the go to textbook on psychopathology for graduate students in clinical and counseling psychology programs and related programs such as social work. It can also be used as a useful reference source for practitioners and researchers. Clinical Psychology David C.S. Richard, Steven K. Huprich, 2011-09-02 Clinical Psychology is a graduate level introduction to the field of clinical psychology. While most textbooks focus on either assessment, treatment, or research, this textbook covers all three together specifically for the introductory level graduate course. Chapter coverage is diverse and contributors come from both PhD and PsyD programs and a variety of theoretical orientations. Chapter topics cover the major activities of the contemporary clinical psychologist with an introduction focusing on training models. The book has a mentoring style designed to highlight the relevance of the topics discussed to clinicians in training. Assessment and treatment chapters focus on evidence based practice, comparing and contrasting different options, the basis for clinical choice between them, and efficacy of same. It will also introduce the business and ethical aspects of the clinical career that current introductory books do not include. Such as ethics in assessment, treatment, and research, third party payers, technological developments, dissemination of research findings, cross cultural issues, and the future of the profession. The text is designed for students in their first year of clinical psychology graduate training. Includes assessment, treatment, and practice issues. Compares and contrasts different therapeutic styles. Exemplifies practical application through case studies. Focuses on evidence based practice. Orients future clinicians to contemporary issues facing psychological practices. Identity

Larry D. Rosen, 2013-03-13 Rond 2015 zal ongeveer 80 procent van de wereld bevolking een smartphone, een tablet, pc of een laptop hebben. Meer dan een op de twee inwoners van West Europa en Noord Amerika maakt er nu al dagelijks gebruik van. Dat wil zeggen dat zij vierentwintig uur per dag online zijn. Dr. Larry D. Rosen argumenteert dat de overvloed aan informatie waar wij mee worden geconfronteerd niet gezond is voor ons geestelijk welzijn. Zo vertoont het gedrag van smartphone-junks en patiënten met een obsessief compulsieve stoornis veel gelijkenissen. Tieners posten hun doen en laten op Facebook, veertigers speuren het internet af op zoek naar tekst en uitleg over huidvlekken, ook al kregen ze van hun arts te horen dat ze zich geen zorgen hoeven te maken.

Het zijn maar enkele voorbeelden Gelukkig hoeft technologie ons leven niet te bepalen In zijn boek drukt Larry D Rosen ons met de neus op de feiten maar tegelijkertijd laat hij ons zien hoe we weer een evenwicht kunnen bereiken tussen het gebruik van digitale media en menswaardig gedrag Dr Larry D Rosen is professor Psychologie aan de California State University Als internationaal erkend expert in technologische psychologie bestudeert hij al 25 jaar het gebruik van nieuwe media bij kinderen studenten en volwassenen Hij is auteur van verschillende boeken en schrijft columns in The National Psychologist
