Nightshift in the ER Margaret Mayotte-Hirn, 2011-05-20 Born in a small town in Upper Peninsula of Michigan Lake Linden Margaret Mayotte Hirn grew up experiencing her life to the fullest Today she can look back and remember and be glad she experienced all those things that made her who she is today She worked full time in hospitals for 48 years and began writing when she was in her 60s She raised three children got a divorce remarried and enjoyed three new children in her life She also gardened raised Arabian horses and showed them played softball since she was 26 and volunteered in her spare time It didn't leave much time for serious writing but the desire was there Leaving full time hospital work did give her more time to do more She volunteered and was selected Volunteer of the Year for 2 different organizations She traveled states wide to play softball in tournaments She was an advocate for senior action and exercise At age 70 she underwent bilateral knee replacements which slowed her down for a little while Determined to return to former activity she dove into therapy Within 6 months she regained all her mobility and resumed all her activities During her slowedown time she thought about publishing the 2 books she had written in past years With that taking place who knows maybe her next passion will be writing Inquisitive daring thoughtful caring and looks at life in a simple straight forward way and addresses its challenges

These attributes are reflected in her writing Notes from a Doctor's Pocket Robert D. Lesslie, 2013-10-01 These Notes from a Doctor's Pocket come from the decades of ER experience of bestselling author Dr Robert Lesslie whose routine faced him with times of grief or pain relief or delight life or death Such everyday happenings and encounters gave rise to these vignettes in which readers will meet up with the characters coincidences and complications common to the emergency room characters like Freddy who literally shoots himself in the foot coincidences like finally having the chance to hear what patients say to each other when doctors and nurses aren't in the room complications such as dealing with parents who buy lottery tickets and alcohol instead of medicine for their little boy These heart tugging heart lifting slices of life will prompt readers to search for opportunities to give the comfort of a touch the grace of a kind word or a prayer that brings hope and healing Dude, Where's My Stethoscope? Donovan Gray, 2013-09-24 Is a real ER anything like what we see on TV Dr

Donovan Gray answers that question in Dude Where's My Stethoscope a laugh out loud funny heartbreaking and sometimes poignant collection of true to life medical short stories We follow Dr Gray through medical school and two decades of unforgettable ER and family practice Humorously written in an engaging mash up of formal prose and informal medical slang with a nod to pop culture and ancient mythology Dude is a powerful book that captures the essence of what it is to be an emergency room doctor Upstream Medicine Andrew Bresnahan, Mahli Brindamour, Christopher Charles, Ryan

Meili, 2017-04-03 When patients visit a clinic or hospital they bring stories of the everyday life conditions that made them sick in the first place stories about where they work live and play stories about income food security and housing Doctors today are listening Personal stories and patient encounters illuminate the social determinants of health that is the upstream source of what too often become complex painful and expensive downstream problems Upstream Medicine features interviews by medical students and residents with leading physicians whose practices bring evidence based upstream ideas to life They show how we can change the practice of medicine to build a healthier society
