Philosophy In A Feminist Voice:

Philosophy in a Feminist Voice Janet A. Kourany, 1997-12-29 In this book Janet Kourany offers an antidote to the pervasive and pernicious strains in Western philosophy that discount women Most areas of Western philosophy tend not only to ignore women but also to perpetuate long standing antifeminine biases of the society as a whole It does not have to be this way Rather than be part of the problem philosophy can be a powerful force for much needed social change In this collection of essays by some of the most noted feminist philosophers Kourany showcases ideas on the newest work of Western philosophy that is benefiting women as well as men Included here are articles by Eileen O'Neill Louise Antony Virginia Held Susan Okin Carolyn Korsmeyer Nancy Frankenberry Lorraine Code Janet Kourany Andrea Nye and Susan Bordo all of whom show further directions in which philosophy ought to proceed This book demonstrates that feminist philosophy is not a separate area of philosophy that can safely be ignored by philosophers not in it Rather it relates to at least most of the major areas of philosophy and its gains will stand to benefit all philosophers no matter what their field Philosophy in a

Where Are the Women? Sarah Tyson, 2018-10-16 Philosophy has not just excluded women It has also been shaped by the exclusion of women As the field grapples with the reality that sexism is a central problem not just for the demographics of the field but also for how philosophy is practiced many philosophers have begun to rethink the canon Yet attempts to broaden European and Anglophone philosophy to include more women in the discipline s history or to acknowledge alternative traditions will not suffice as long as exclusionary norms remain in place In Where Are the Women Sarah Tyson makes a powerful case for how redressing women s exclusion can make philosophy better She argues that engagements with historical thinkers typically afforded little authority can transform the field outlining strategies based on the work of three influential theorists Genevieve Lloyd Luce Irigaray and Mich le Le Doeuff Following from the possibilities they open up at once literary linguistic psychological and political Tyson reclaims two passionate nineteenth century texts the Declaration of Sentiments from the 1848 Seneca Falls Convention and Sojourner Truth s speech at the 1851 Akron Ohio Women s Convention showing how the demands for equality rights and recognition sought in the early women s movement still pose quandaries for contemporary philosophy feminism and politics Where Are the Women challenges us to confront the reality that women s exclusion from philosophy has been an ongoing project and to become more critical both of how we see existing injustices and of how we address them
