ICSSED 2020 Muhammad Nur Sa'ban, Benni Setiawan, Danu Eko Agustinova, Sutanto Trijuni Putro, Robbi Rahim, 2020-11-04 The theme of the conference is Reconstructing Morals Education and Social Sciences for Achieving Sustainable Development Goals This theme was formulated due to several considerations First the symptoms of moral decline that have the potential to destroy the nation Morals guide humanity towards truth and civilization The phenomenon of the dehumanization process in the industrial era that pushed people to be part of abstract societies tends to ignore humanity The education process as a humanitarian system is increasingly marginalized especially during discussions about the industrial revolution 4 0 and Society 5 0 The conference placed six sub themes for speakers and participants to share ideas namely Social Sciences and Laws History and Cultural Studies Interdisciplinary Studies Morals and Humanities Policy Politics and Communication Education The committee has received 195 abstracts from prospective speakers However there are only 80 abstracts that are eligible to be presented at this conference UNIVERSITY PRESS in INDONESIA Anggun Gunawan, 2020-11-01 University Presses worldwide are struggling with three key issues profitability and sustainability globalization digitalization and dominance of English and Open Access Indonesia categorized as the third world in global discourse is still developing its scholarly communication institution including its University Press Many publications stated that the Indonesian university press is in a weak position because of the managerial problem the lack of support from authority and human resources matters This research aims to seek the position of Indonesian University Press in the three main issues and pay much attention to elaborating the UGM Press It combined the online survey and interviews as the primary data that engage several figures and communities with close interaction with University Press The online survey reached three groups of people Lecturers Librarians and General Audiences The interview was conducted with the UP directors publishing academics UP s author and the chairman of the Indonesian University Press Association To analyze those data I use the theory of symbolic capital initiated by Bourdieu and interpreted by Thomson in the field of scholarly communication and the theory of reputation introduced by Gloria Origgi In terms of profitability the condition of Indonesian University Presses is very diverse I found that the university presses with its host institution having the status of PTNBH could be survived with generating revenue from its business models University Presses in Indonesia including UGM Press have been embracing the POD scheme that allowed them to apply restricted production and then transform into large distribution and channels with e book platforms social media and online marketplace UGM Press decided to concentrate on penetrating the local market because its publications are dominantly in Indonesian Open Access had not become the priority of Indonesia University Presses because they were still thinking about the new business model or alternatives for supporting their cost for operating the business Some changes in government regulations should be taken to create a supportive environment for University Presses to grow Indonesia James W. Islamic Populism in Indonesia and the Middle East Vedi R. Hadiz, 2016-02-05 In a novel approach to the field of Islamic politics this provocative new study compares the evolution of Islamic populism in Indonesia the country with the largest Muslim population in the world to the Middle East Utilising approaches from historical sociology and political economy Vedi R Hadiz argues that competing strands of Islamic politics can be understood as the product of contemporary struggles over power material resources and the result of conflict across a variety of social and historical contexts Drawing from detailed case studies across the Middle East and Southeast Asia the book engages with broader theoretical questions about political change in the context of socio economic transformations and presents an innovative comparative framework to shed new light on the diverse trajectories of Islamic politics in the modern world Public Discourses About Homosexuality and Religion in Europe and Beyond Marco Derks, Mariecke van den Berg, 2020-10-01 This volume addresses three things many people do not discuss candidly with strangers or mere acquaintances God sex and politics These can easily become topics of fierce debate particularly when taken together as has been the case with same sex marriage legislation the Vatican's criticism of gender ideology or the repeatedly asserted claim that Islam homosexuality and gender equality are essentially incompatible This volume investigates what is at stake in these constructions of religion and homosexuality in public discourses Starting with the Netherlands as a special case study it proceeds with contributions on other predominantly postsecular countries in central northern and southern Europe as well as several postcommunist and postcolonial countries beyond Europe Combining contemporary and historical perspectives and approaches from both the humanities and the social sciences the contributors explore how national and European identities are constructed and contested in debates on religion and homosexuality Chapter 2 and Chapter 8 of this book are available open access under a CC BY 4.0 license at link.springer.com Television, Nation, and Culture in Indonesia Philip Kitley, 2014-07-31 The culture of television in Indonesia began with its establishment in 1962 as a public broadcasting service From that time through the deregulation of television broadcasting in 1990 and the establishment of commercial channels television can be understood Philip Kitley argues as a part of the New Order's national culture project designed to legitimate an idealized Indonesian national cultural identity But Professor Kitley suggests that it also has become a site for the contestation of elements of the New Order's cultural policies Based on his studies he further speculates on the increasingly significant role that television is destined to play as a site of cultural and political struggle
