Resurrection City A Theology Of Improvisation Prophetic Christianity:

Resurrection City Peter Heltzel, 2014-05-14 In Resurrection City Peter Heltzel paints a prophetic picture of an evangelical Christianity that eschews a majority mentality and instead fights against racism inequality and injustice embracing the concerns of the poor and marginalized just as Jesus did Placing society's needs front and center Heltzel calls for radical change and collective activism modeled on God's love and justice In particular Heltzel explores the social forms that love and justice can take as religious communities join together to build beloved cities He proclaims the importance of improvising for justice likening the church's prophetic ministry to jazz music and develops a biblical theology of shalom justice His vision draws inspiration from the black freedom struggle and the lives of Sojourner Truth Howard Thurman and Martin Luther King Jr Pulsing with hope and beauty Resurrection City compels evangelical Christians to begin a global movement for love and justice that truly embodies the kingdom of God Resurrection City Peter Goodwin

Volume 17, 2015-2016 Hughson T. Ong, David J. Fuller, 2017-08-23 The McMaster Journal of Theology and Ministry is an electronic and print journal that seeks to provide pastors educators and interested lay persons with the fruits of theological biblical and professional studies in an accessible form Published by McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario it continues the heritage of scholarly inquiry and theological dialogue represented by the College's previous print publications the Theological Bulletin Theodolite and the McMaster Journal of Theology

Dear White Christians Jennifer Harvey, 2020-07-14 If reconciliation is the takeaway point for the civil rights story we usually tell then the takeaway point for the more complex more truthful civil rights story contained in Dear White Christians is reparations from the preface to the second edition With the troubling and painful events of the last several years from the killing of numerous unarmed Black men and women at the hands of police to the rallying of white supremacists in Charlottesville it is clearer than ever that the reconciliation paradigm long favored by white Christians has failed to heal the deep racial wounds in the church and American society In this provocative book originally published in 2014 Jennifer Harvey argues for a radical shift away from the well meaning but feeble longing for reconciliation toward a robustly biblical call for reparations Now in its second edition with a new preface addressing the explosive changes in American culture and politics since 2014 as well as an appendix that explores what a reparations paradigm can actually look like Dear White Christians calls justice committed Christians to do the gospel inspired work of opposing racist social structures around them Harvey's message is historically and scripturally rooted making it ideal for facilitating the difficult but important discussions about race that are so desperately needed in churches and faith centered classrooms across the country

Christian Ethics Steve Wilkens, 2017-06-27 Steve Wilkens edits a conversation between four major approaches to contemporary ethics in the Christian tradition virtue divine command natural law and prophetic This accessible introduction includes contributions by Brad Kallenberg John Hare Claire Peterson and Peter Heltzel

Prophetic Rage Johnny Bernard Hill, 2013-12-19 In this book Johnny Bernard Hill argues that prophetic rage or righteous anger is a necessary response to our present culture of imperialism and nihilism The most powerful way to resist meaninglessness he says is refusing to accept the realities of structural injustice such as poverty escalating militarism genocide and housing discrimination Hill's Prophetic Rage is interdisciplinary integrating art music and literature with theology It is constructive passionate and provocative Hill weaves through a myriad of creative and prophetic voices of protest from Jesus to W E B DuBois Martin Luther King Jr Malcolm X and President Barack Obama as well as multiple approaches including liberation theology and black religion to reflect theologically on the nature of liberation justice and hope on contemporary culture

Jesus, Jubilee, and the Politics of God's Reign Christian T. Collins Winn, 2023-02-07 What if the kingdom of God is not a place but a person In this timely monograph Christian T Collins Winn argues that the kingdom of God is Jesus himself Drawing on a wide breadth of liberation theology Jesus Jubilee and the Politics of God's Reign amplifies the echoes of salvation history in contemporary struggles for social justice Collins Winn demonstrates how the institution of the Jubilee year exemplifies the kingdom of God A semicentennial celebration prescribed in the book of Leviticus Jubilee prescribed the redistribution of wealth and freeing of prisoners Hope for Jubilee persists in apocalyptic rhetoric from the exhortations of Old Testament prophets to those of modern progressives Likewise Jesus's ministry passion and resurrection convey the justice of Jubilee and urgency of apocalypse His conquest over death represents the ultimate vindication of the oppressed in the kingdom of God an outpouring of Spirit seen today in continuing restorative efforts by oppressed communities in the face of death dealing institutions Historically informed and passionately written Jesus Jubilee and the Politics of God's Reign challenges readers to find Jesus in the marginalized persons of our own time Always with Us? Liz Theoharis, 2017-04-21 A strong theological call for ending the abomination of systemic poverty Jesus's words the poor you will always have with you Matthew 26:11 are regularly used to suggest that ending poverty is impossible that poverty is a result of moral failures and that the poor themselves have no role in changing their situation In this book Liz Theoharis examines both the biblical text and the lived reality of the poor to show how that passage is taken out of context distorted and politicized to justify theories about the inevitability of inequality Theoharis reinterprets the poor you will always have with you to show that it is actually one of the strongest biblical mandates to end poverty She documents stories of poor people themselves organizing to improve their lot and illuminates the implications for the church Poverty is not inevitable Theoharis argues It is a systemic sin and all Christians have a responsibility to partner with the poor to end poverty once and for all Embracing the Other Grace Ji-Sun Kim, 2015-10-21 An innovative Asian feminist perspective on God's Spirit We live in a time of great racial strife and global conflict How do we work toward healing reconciliation and justice among all people regardless of race or gender In Embracing the Other Grace Ji Sun Kim demonstrates that it is possible only through God's Spirit Working from a feminist Asian perspective Kim develops a new constructive global pneumatology that works toward gender and racial ethnic justice She draws on concepts from Asian and indigenous cultures to reimagine the divine as Spirit God who is restoring shalom in the world Through the power of Spirit God Kim says our brokenness is healed and we can truly love and embrace the Other
