International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education

Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Kathleen Engebretson, Robert Jackson, Andrew McGrady, 2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it is today Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world

Partners in Wisdom and Grace Marilyn T. Kravatz, 2010-05-10 Creative tension calls for a dialogical conversation in order to find mutual ground that can be beneficial for both partners Partners in Wisdom and Grace explores the possibility of such tension created by the absence of religious education as a dialogical partner in the National Directory for Catechesis published by the U S Bishops in 2005 These queries are central Will catechesis take religious education as a conversation partner And will religious education return the favor This book concludes that catechesis and religious education remain distinct enterprises that have their own specific identities and make their own particular contributions toward educating for a religious way of life This is an invitation for catechesis and religious education to generate a continuous healthy dialogue and mutually enrich each other while maintaining their distinct identities

Warfield,Kate Hetherington,2018-11-26 The construct of transformation has emerged as a prominent theme in academic discourse Based on the accepted notion that processes and living organisms are in an ongoing state of development it is unsurprising that this concept of transformation would find resonance within literature on the pilgrimage phenomenon Examples of transformational processes intersecting with pilgrimage are the movement from sickness to wellness from grief to closure and from fractured to integrated That the pilgrimage journey itself can be construed as a transformational quest was noted by Winkleman and Dubisch 2005 who stated Life transforming experiences are at the core of both traditional and more contemporary forms of pilgrimage In the current volume Warfield and Hetherington examine the transformational process of pilgrimage journeys Contributors are Sharenda Holland Barlar Anne M Blankenship Valentina Bold Shirley du Plooy Alexandria M Egler Miguel Tain Guzman Kate Hetherington Scott Libson Chadwick Co Sy Su Kip Redick Roy Tamashiro and Heather A Warfield Disruptive Inclusion Jen Smith ,2024-03-31 What is Christian adult learning What questions are raised when Christian faith and learning meet Many existing approaches primarily address issues such as curriculum content or teacher character Building on the work of John Hull Disruptive Inclusion approaches the intersection of theology and pedagogy suggesting that the christianness of Christian adult learning is best expressed by the posture adopted by learners not only via what is taught and by whom Specifically Jen Smith claims that a key to Christian adult learning posture is how learners include the unexpected and disruptive in their learning Drawing on key resources such as the biblical narrative Christian tradition liturgy community and her own experiences Jen takes us on a deeply personal and practical journey into disruptive inclusion and invites us to re imagine what effective Christian adult learning might look like in the classroom pulpit and online learning settings Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian,Mark A.
