Mobility Makes States Migration And Power In Africa:

Mobility Makes States Darshan Vigneswaran, Joel Quirk, 2015-05-05 In Mobility Makes States political scientists historians sociologists and anthropologists examine the role of mobility in shaping how states are formed and how they behave Focusing on links between power and migration across sub Saharan Africa the book explores how and why states have sought to harness movements towards their own ends Social Im/mobilities in Africa Joël Noret, 2019-11-08 Grounded in both theory and ethnography this volume insists on taking social positionality seriously when accounting for Africa's current age of polarizing wealth To this end the book advocates a multidimensional view of African societies in which social positions consist of a variety of intersecting social powers or capitals including wealth education social relationships religion ethnicity and others Accordingly the notion of social im/mobilities emphasizes the complexities of current changes taking us beyond the prism of a one dimensional social ladder for social moves cannot always be apprehended through the binaries of gains and losses Understanding Global Migration James F. Hollifield, Neil Foley, 2022-03-01 Understanding Global Migration offers scholars a groundbreaking account of emerging migration states around the globe especially in the Global South Leading scholars of migration have collaborated to provide a birds eye view of migration interdependence Understanding Global Migration proposes a new typology of migration states identifying multiple ideal types beyond the classical liberal type Much of the world's migration has been to countries in Asia Africa the Middle East and South America The authors assembled here account for diverse histories of colonialism development and identity in shaping migration policy This book provides a truly global look at the dilemmas of migration governance Will migration be destabilizing or will it lead to greater openness and human development The answer depends on the capacity of states to manage migration especially their willingness to respect the rights of the ever growing portion of the world's population that is on the move Trade Makes States Tobias Hagmann, Finn Stepputat, 2023-05-01 Trade Makes States highlights how trade and the circulation of goods are central to Somali societies economies and politics Drawing on multi site research from across East Africa's Somali inhabited economic space which includes areas of Kenya Djibouti Uganda and Ethiopia this volume highlights the interconnection between trade and state building after state collapse It scrutinises the politics of circulation between competing public administrations which seek to generate revenue and to control infrastructures along major trade corridors Connecting classic debates on state formation with recent scholarship on logistics and cross border trading Trade Makes States argues that the facilitation and capture of commodity flows have been instrumental in making and unmaking states across the Somali territories Aspiring state builders are thus confronted with the challenge of governing the flow of goods in order to rule over lands and peoples The contributors to this volume draw attention to the ingenuities of transnational Somali markets which often appear to be self governed Their dynamism and everyday administration by a host of actors provide important insights into contemporary state formation on the margins of global supply chain capitalism Routledge

Portage and Colonial State Formation in German East Africa, 1880s-1914 Andreas Greiner, 2022-11-07 This book explores the role of caravan transport and human portage in the colony of German East Africa present day mainland Tanzania Rwanda and Burundi With caravan mobility being of pivotal importance to colonial rule during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the exploration of vernacular transport and its governance during this period sheds new light on the trajectories of colonial statehood The author addresses key questions such as the African resilience to colonial interventions the issue of labor recruitment and the volatility of colonial infrastructure This book unveils a fundamental contradiction in the way that German administrators dealt with precolonial modes of transport in East Africa While colonizers championed for the abolishment of caravan transport they strongly depended on porters in the absence of pack animals or railways To bring this contradiction to the fore the author studies the shifting role of caravans in East Africa during the era of high imperialism Uncovering the extent to which porters and caravan entrepreneurs challenged and shaped colonial policymaking this book provides an insightful read for historians studying German Empire and African history as well as those interested in the history of transport and infrastructure Touts
