Mobilizing The Will To Intervene Leadership To Prevent Mass Atrocities:

Mobilizing the Will to Intervene Frank Chalk, Kyle Matthews, Carla Barqueiro, Simon Doyle, 2010-08-23 Despite the handwringing and promises of never again the grim recurrences of genocide and crimes against humanity around the world have made it emphatically clear that the international community has been largely ineffective in stopping mass atrocity crimes Drawing on candid interviews with eighty key figures involved in American and Canadian responses to the Rwandan genocide of 1994 and the Kosovo crisis of 1999 Mobilizing the Will to Intervene explains why and provides a roadmap for change Since appeals to the moral law carry little weight in the political calculations of modern states the authors argue that civil society must persuade governments that the prevention of mass atrocities around the world is in every country's national interest In a globalized world violence disease and instability triggered by mass atrocities in one place affect the security health and prosperity of all other regions No nation is an island Impassioned insightful and determined Mobilizing the Will to Intervene is a direct appeal to American and Canadian politicians NGOs journalists and the public to participate effectively in the prevention of mass atrocities by pressuring their leaders to act With simple practical recommendations this book shows how civil society can participate in preventing future mass atrocities and help repair a ruined system of international aid

Mobilizing the Will to Intervene Frank Robert Chalk, 2010 Published for the Montreal Institute for Genocide and Human Rights Studies at Concordia University

Reconstructing Atrocity Prevention Sheri P.

Rosenberg, Tibi Galis, Alex Zucker, 2016 This proposes a new framework for atrocity prevention featuring scholars from around the globe including three former UN special advisers

Impediments to the Prevention and Intervention of Genocide Samuel Totten, 2013 Academics NGOs the United Nations and individual nations are focused on the prevention and intervention of genocide Traditionally missions to prevent or intervene in genocide have been sporadic and under resourced The contributors to this volume consider some of the major stumbling blocks to the avoidance of genocide Bartrop and Totten argue that realpolitik is the major impediment to the elimination of genocide Campbell examines the lack of political will to confront genocide and Theriault describes how denial becomes an obstacle to intervention against genocide Loyle and Davenport discuss how intervention is impeded by a lack of reliable data on genocide violence and Macgregor presents an overview of the influence of the media Totten examines how the UN Convention on Genocide actually impedes anti genocide efforts and how the institutional configuration of the UN is itself often a stumbling block Addressing an issue that is often overlooked Travis examines the impact of global arms trade on genocide Finally Hiebert examines how international criminal prosecution of atrocities can impede preventive efforts and Hirsch provides an analysis of the strengths weaknesses and effectiveness of major international and national prescriptions developed over the last decade The result is a distinguished addition to Transaction's prestigious Genocide Studies series

Protect norm in world politics which aims to end mass atrocities against civilians The Responsibility to Protect R2P is amongst the most significant norms in global politics As the authoritative guide to R2P this edited volume gathers together the most respected and insightful voices to address key issues related to this emerging norm The contributing authors do this over the course of three parts Part I The Concept of R2P Part II Developing and Operationalising R2P Part III The view from Over Here This book will be of much interest to students of R2P humanitarian intervention genocide human rights international law peace studies international organisations security studies and IR

Last Lectures on the Prevention and Intervention of Genocide Samuel Totten, 2017-09-29 Last Lectures on the Prevention and Intervention of Genocide is a collection of hypothetical last lectures by some of the top scholars and practitioners across the globe in the fields of human rights and genocide studies Each lecture purportedly constitutes the last thing the author will ever say about the prevention and intervention of genocide The contributions to this volume are thought provoking engaging and at times controversial reflecting the scholars most advanced thinking about issues of human rights and genocide This book will be of great interest to professors researchers and students of political science international relations psychology sociology history human rights and genocide studies

Mass Atrocities, Risk and Resilience Stephen McLoughlin, 2015-06-29 Mass Atrocities Risk and Resilience examines the relationship between risk and resilience in the prevention of genocide and other mass atrocities and explores two broad areas of neglect In terms of prevention there is very little research that analyzes how local and national actors manage the risk associated with mass atrocities In the field of comparative genocide studies to date there has been very little interest in examining negative cases Although much is known about why mass atrocities occur much less is established about why they do not occur The contributions in this book address this neglect in two important ways First they challenge commonly accepted approaches to prevention Second they explore negative cases in order to better understand how local and national actors have mitigated risk over time
