Communication Against Capital Rianne Subijanto, 2025-02-15 Communication against Capital explores the revolutionary communication strategies of the pergerakan merah the anticolonial red movement in 1920s Indonesia Rianne Subijanto tells the story of ordinary lower class women and children and people of diverse races and ethnicities who waged their battles against Dutch colonialism within multiple arenas of communication including political associations assemblies printed matter schools and shipping lines Existing communication technologies were repurposed into mechanisms of struggle and used as weapons in anticolonial and anticapitalist resistance In this process communist ideas merged with ideals drawn from the Enlightenment to shape the emancipatory spirit of Indonesians This red enlightenment motivated the production of revolutionary communication strategies of mobilization Subijanto's innovative work shows that the novel techniques of the pergerakan merah served to shift anticolonial mobilization in Indonesia from warfare to modern forms of communication

Dissimilar Coffee Frontiers Sven Van Melkebeke, 2020-06-22 In Dissimilar Coffee Frontiers Sven Van Melkebeke compares the divergent development of coffee production in eastern Congo and western Rwanda during the colonial period The Lake Kivu region offers a remarkable case study to investigate diversity in economic development In Rwanda on the eastern side of the lake coffee was mainly cultivated by smallholder families while in the Congo on the western side of the lake European plantations were the dominant mode of production Making use of a wide array of largely untapped archival sources Sven Van Melkebeke convincingly succeeds in moving the manuscript beyond a case study of colonizers to a more nuanced history of interaction and in presenting an innovative new social history of labor and land processes

The Oxford Handbook of Land Politics Saturnino M. Borrás, Jennifer C. Franco, Researcher Jennifer C Franco, 2025 Access to land in all its multiple meanings is necessarily diverse complex and contentious and facilitating and maintaining such access constitutes a mosaic of social relations and institutional instruments rather than the minimalist and simplistic reduction of land to land property that in turn tends to be interpreted always as individual private property The Oxford Handbook of Land Politics offers heterodox analytical tools to help the reader make sense of the complexity of the politics of land
