Modern Architecture In Czechoslovakia And Other Writings Texts And Documents:

Modern Architecture in Czechoslovakia and Other Writings Karel Teige, 2000 This series offers a range of heretofore unavailable writings in English translation on the subjects of art architecture and aesthetics Teige's principal work on modernism now in English for the first time is supplemented by a selection of his other writings on art and architecture

Adolf Loos Joseph Masheck, 2013-03-21 Widely regarded as one of the most significant prophets of modern architecture Adolf Loos was a celebrity in his own day His work was emblematic of the turn of the century generation that was torn between the traditional culture of the nineteenth century and the innovative modernism of the twentieth His essay Ornament and Crime equated superfluous ornament and decorative arts with tattooing in an attempt to tell modern Europeans that they should know better But the negation of ornament was supposed to reveal not negate good style and an incorrigible ironist has been taken too literally in denying architecture as a fine art Without normalizing his edgy radicality Masheck argues that Loos masterful astylistic architecture was an appreciation of tradition and utility and not as most architectural historians have argued a mere repudiation of the florid style of the Vienna Secession Masheck reads Loos as a witty ironic rhetorician who has all too often been taken at face value Far from being the anti architect of the modern era Masheck's Loos is an unruly yet integrally canonical artist architect He believed in culture comfort intimacy and privacy and advocated the evolution of artful architecture This is a brilliantly written revisionist reading of a perennially popular architect

Circus and the Avant-Gardes Anna-Sophie Jürgens, Mirjam Hildbrand, 2022-03-14 This book examines how circus and circus imaginary have shaped the historical avant gardes at the beginning of the 20th century and the cultures they help constitute to what extent this is a mutual shaping and why this is still relevant today This book aims to produce a better sense of the artistic work and cultural achievements that have emerged from the interplay of circus and avant garde artists and projects and to clarify both their transhistorical and trans medial presence and their scope for interdisciplinary expansion Across 14 chapters written by leading scholars from fields as varied as circus theatre and performance studies art media studies film and cultural history some of which are written together with performers and circus practitioners the book examines to what extent circus and avant garde connections contribute to a better understanding of early 20th century artistic movements and their enduring legacy of the history of popular entertainment and the cultural relevance of circus arts Circus and the Avant Gardes elucidates how the realm of the circus as a model or rather a blueprint for modernist experiment innovation and re negotiation of bodies has become fully integrated in our ways of perceiving avant gardes today The book does not only map the significance of circus avant garde phenomena for the past but through an exploration of their contemporary actualisations in different media also carves out their achievements relevance and impact both cultural and aesthetic on the present time

The Vienna Circle in Czechoslovakia Radek Schuster, 2020-02-24 This book explores the remarkable interconnections of the Czechoslovak environment and the work and legacy of the Vienna Circle on the philosophical scientific and artistic level The Czech lands and later Czechoslovakia were the living and working space for the predecessors and catalysts for Logical Empiricism such as Bernard Bolzano Ernst Mach and Albert Einstein along with key figures in the Vienna Circle such as Philipp Frank and Rudolf Carnap Moreover Prague hosted important academic events in which Logical Empiricism was presented to the public such as the September 1929 1st Conference on the Epistemology of the Exact Sciences which launched the key manifesto The Vienna Circle The Scientific Conception of the World In addition this book investigates both the positive and negative receptions of Logical Empiricism within Czech and Slovak intellectual circles The volume features a selection of contributions to the international conference The Vienna Circle in Czechoslovakia held in Pilsen Czech Republic in February 2015 These essays are supplemented by two texts of vivid personal memoirs by Nina Holton and Ladislav Tondl The book is of interest to scholars and researchers interested in the history of philosophy and science in central Europe and the philosophy of science and the Logical Empiricism of the Vienna Circle Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2001 Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians Society of Architectural Historians,1947 Includes special issues Cold War Books in the 'Other' Europe and What Came After Jiřina Šmejkalová,2010-11-19 Drawing on analyses of the socio cultural context of East and Central Europe with a special focus on the Czech cultural dynamics of the Cold War and its aftermath this book offers a study of the making and breaking of the centrally controlled system of book production and reception It explores the social material and symbolic reproduction of the printed text in both official and alternative spheres and patterns of dissemination and reading Building on archival research statistical data media analyses and in depth interviews with the participants of the post 1989 de centralization and privatization of the book world it revisits the established notions of censorship and revolution in order to uncover people s performances that contributed to both the reproduction and erosion of the old regime The City Reader Richard T.
