Ornament Illusion Carlo Crivelli Venice:

Ornament & Illusion C. the spiritual lives of Renaissance Italians The Endless Periphery Stephen J. Campbell, 2019-11-26 While the masterpieces of the Italian Renaissance are usually associated with Italy's historical seats of power some of the era's most characteristic works are to be found in places other than Florence Rome and Venice They are the product of the diversity of regions and cultures that makes up the country In Endless Periphery Stephen J Campbell examines a range of iconic works in order to unlock a rich series of local references in Renaissance art that include regional rulers patron saints and miracles demonstrating for example that the works of Titian spoke to beholders differently in Naples Brescia or Milan than in his native Venice More than a series of regional microhistories Endless Periphery tracks the geographic mobility of Italian Renaissance art and artists revealing a series of exchanges between artists and their patrons as well as the power dynamics that fueled these exchanges A counter history of one of the greatest epochs of art production this richly illustrated book will bring new insight to our understanding of classic works of Italian art The Announcement Hana Gründler, Alessandro Nova, Itay Sapir, 2020-09-21 The Annunciation a specific event recounted in the Bible and often represented in artworks but also the prototype of many other announcements throughout the history of Western culture This volume proposes new readings of pictorial Annunciations from the Middle Ages and the Early Modern period treating aspects such as witnesses inscriptions and architecture as well as analyses of some visual echoes reenactments of the announcement to Mary in sacred and profane contexts up to the twenty first century Among the latter are included Venetian decoration glorifying the state a Jean Luc Godard film a video art piece by Eija Liisa Ahtila Lars von Trier's Melancholia and a saint's bedroom turned into a pilgrimage site Carlo Crivelli R. Animal Sightings Jodi Cranston,2024-10-08 Animal Sightings challenges two common ideas about the depiction of animals in early modern European court art first that the human figure relegated animals to peripheral and often symbolic roles both compositionally and conceptually and second that the representation of animals during this period was predominantly tied to a growing interest in naturalism derived from scientific study and discovery Art historian Jodi Cranston considers the diversity of art representing animals common to that time and place including dogs stags falcons and even insects She discusses how early modern European courts primarily in northern Italy Tyrol Saxony and southern Germany where the preponderance of European courtly activity related to animals occurred acquired and kept living animals sponsored hunts in purpose cultivated forests and fostered trade in animal products The diverse works created by artists associated with those courts reveal an ambivalent and complex view of animals as beings who shared and shaped the world alongside humans Ultimately Animal Sightings explores how early modern artists and viewers thought about human animal interactions how visual representation facilitated and inhibited knowledge about animals and how animals could reveal the limits and possibilities of visual representation It should be of special interest to scholars of early modern studies art history and animal studies
