Ot Blues Barry Metzler, 2010-11 Not since 1940 when Bob Hope and Bing Crosby joined forces and began filming their famous Road pictures has life on the road been so humorous OT Blues Comical Stories From a Life on the Road takes you right along with the author as he shares his funniest escapades during his years of traveling for business There was the time he interrupts two lovebirds in his room at an old West Virginia hotel Shaken and frazzled he asks the manager for a different room key she answers Honey that key will open every door in this building Another quandary finds him on a beach searching for a co worker who inadvertently falls asleep on a raft and drifts out to sea If you ve ever flown on an airplane or spent time in an airport you will immediately relate to these hilarious anecdotes and situations that befall the author Barry Metzler turns the tedious trials of the workday and workingman into the hilarious No one is safe from Metzler s wit and humor neither boss nor co worker Anyone who has ever toiled long hours with less than competent colleagues will find that OT Blues has the ability to turn what should be mundane into a laugh out loud page turner About the Author Barry Metzler has a unique sense of humor and the ability to find the hilarity in almost any situation He lives in Pittsburgh with his family and continues to write about the funny situations of everyday life Publisher s website <http://www.strategicpublishinggroup.com/title/OTBlues.htm>
