Out Of The Shadows Expanding The Canon Of Classic Film Noir:

Out of the Shadows Gene D. Phillips, 2011-11-03 Film noir was a cycle in American cinema which first came into prominence during World War II peaked in the 1950s and began to taper off as a definable trend by 1960 Over the years a group of films from the period emerged as noir standards beginning with Stranger on the Third Floor in 1940 However since film noir is too wide ranging it cannot be kept within the narrow limits of the official canon that has been established by film historians Consequently several neglected movies made during the classic noir period need to be re evaluated as noir films In Out of the Shadows Expanding the Canon of Classic Film Noir Gene Phillips provides an in depth examination of several key noir films including acknowledged masterpieces like Laura The Maltese Falcon Sunset Boulevard and Touch of Evil as well as films not often associated with film noir like Spellbound A Double Life and Anatomy of a Murder Phillips also examines overlooked or underappreciated films such as Song of the Thin Man The Glass Key Ministry of Fear and Act of Violence Also considered in this reevaluation are significant neo noir films among them Chinatown Hammett L A Confidential and The Talented Mr Ripley In his analyses Phillips draws upon a number of sources including personal interviews with directors and others connected with their productions screenplays and evaluations of other commentators Out of the Shadows explores not only the most celebrated noir films but offers new insight into underrated films that deserve reconsideration Of interest to film historians and scholars this volume will also appeal to anyone who wants a better understanding of the works that represent this unique cycle in American filmmaking

Noir Pettey Homer B. Pettey, 2014-11-11 Explores the development of film noir as a cultural and artistic phenomenon This book traces the development of what we know as film noir from the proto noir elements of Feuillade's silent French crime series and German Expressionism to the genre's mid twentieth century popularization and influence on contemporary global media By employing experimental lighting effects oblique camera angles distorted compositions and shifting points of view film noir's style both creates and comments upon a morally adumbrated world where the alienating effects of the uncanny the fetishistic and the surreal dominate What drew original audiences to film noir is an immediate recognition of this modern social and psychological reality Much of the appeal of film noir concerns its commentary on social anxieties its cynical view of political and capitalist corruption and its all too brutal depictions of American modernity This book examines the changing often volatile shifts in representations of masculinity and femininity as well as the genre's complex relationship with Afro American culture observable through noir's musical and sonic experiments Key features Traces the history of film noir from its aesthetic antecedents through its mid century popularization to its influence on contemporary global media Discusses the influence of literary and artistic sources on the development of film noir Includes extensive bibliographies filmographies and recommended noir film viewing Concludes with a reflective chapter by Alain Silver and James Ursini on their own influential studies and collections on film noir criticism

Out of the Past Ben Tyrer, 2016-08-17 This book presents a new reading of film noir through psychoanalytic theory In a field now dominated by Deleuzian and phenomenological approaches to film philosophy this book argues that far from having passed the time for Lacan in Film Studies is only just beginning The chapters engage with Lacanian psychoanalysis to perform a meta critical analysis of the writing on noir in the last seven decades and to present an original theory of criticism and historiography for the cinema The book is also an act of mourning for a lost past of the cinema for a longstanding critical tradition and for film noir It asks how we can talk about film noir when in fact film noir doesn't exist The answer starts with Lacan and a refusal to relinquish psychoanalysis Lacanian theories of retroactivity and ontology can be read together with film history genre and narrative to show the ways in which theory and history past and present cinema and psychoanalysis are fundamentally knotted together Tyrer also explores Lacan through particular noir films such as Double Indemnity and The Maltese Falcon and demonstrates the possibilities for a Lacanian Film Studies as one that engages fully with Lacan's entire body of work that has hitherto not been realised

The Essence of Film Noir Diana Royer, 2022-06-07 American classic films noir beginning with 1941's The Maltese Falcon and ending with 1950's Sunset Boulevard and the neo noir films made from the 1970s onward share certain thematic aspects stylistic qualities and cultural contexts Their concern with politics their depiction of con artists and the way their characters are shaped by America's puritanical religious roots show that these films are examples of a unique American genre even when the films directors are German emigres with artistic roots in European Expressionism The films psychological depth is revealed stylistically through complex narratives with select directors generating visual poetry as they deal with sex violence and betrayal Some films are based on popular novels inspired by true crime cases A unique approach to film noir scholarship this book discusses the genre s thematic aspects cultural contexts and stylistic qualities For those films based upon novels in depth analysis of the fiction is provided alongside the film version resulting in a fuller more thorough understanding of the genre

American Film Noir Genres, Characters, and Settings Harold Hellwig,2023-03-20 American Film Noir Genres Characters and Settings argues that film noir style evolved out of American literature prior to the 1930s and continues to evolve long after the classic films that defined its presence in cinema While many critics suggest that the film noir tradition ceased after the mid 1950s labeling similar films produced later as neo noir Harold Hellwig contends that film noir itself has continued to evolve beyond cinema to include television series such as CSI Have Gun Will Travel and Frasier among others Hellwig posits that rather than being a single genre in and of itself film noir comprises several genres including detective procedurals science fiction the Western and even comedy This book examines different elements of American film noir including the characters and settings it is often defined by and its contexts within different adaptations in both film and television Scholars of film studies American literature and media studies will find this book of particular interest
